MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Milwaukee Gas Light Co. plans to begin work next month on a $3 million construction program that will extend natural gas service to 25 communities in western Wisconsin.

The communities, by district are:

Evansville district — Brodhead, Albany, Monticello, New Glarus, Belleville and Evansville.

Rice Lake district — Bloomer, New Auburn, Chetek, Clear Lake, Amery, Cameron, Barron, Rice Lake and Cumberland.

Lancaster district — Cuba City, Lancaster, Fennimore, Boscobel, Muscoda and Richland Center.

Tipsy Driver Found Guilty After 4 Years

New London Man
Loses Appeal of
First Conviction

A New London man who was arrested nearly four years ago and charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol was convicted Tuesday of the charge by a Circuit Court jury.

Alfred G. Bellile, now 22, was 18 at the time he was arrested by state police on State 45 between Hortonville and New London. He pleaded innocent to the charge when he was arraigned the following day. The case did not come before a county court jury until three years later when Bellile was found guilty and fined $150. He appealed the case to Circuit Court.

Testimony showed that state patrolmen stopped Bellile when he was seen driving erratically. He contended that his glasses were broken, it was raining and his windshield wipers were broken and he could not see the road. He tested .18 on a drunkometer and was examined by a doctor. A reading of .15 is considered evidence of intoxication.

Circuit Judge Andrew W. Parnell fined Bellile $150 and ordered his driver's license revoked one year. His address at the time of his arrest was 513 E. Quincy St., New London.

Lawrence Teacher Crop

90 Seniors Equipped To Become Instructors

Ninety Lawrence College and Conservatory students of the class of 1964 will be equipped to teach in either primary or secondary schools in the academic or music fields, according to Kenneth Sager of the Lawrence Education Department.

The total, including 68 from the college and 22 from the conservatory, represents almost half of the school's graduating seniors.

The academic section of the college provides about 20 hours of education credits through courses in psychology of learning and general and specific methods in chosen major and minor fields. During the senior year, the student spends a 10-weeks' internship practice teaching at area schools.

Internship Experience
It is this internship which provides a realistic laboratory experience for the future teacher. While at school each day, he observes actual teaching methods, including the use of varieties of instructional materials and techniques. Through conversations with administration and staff personnel at the school he is able to judge for himself what to expect at a "live" educating clinic.

Practice teachers from Lawrence have served in the Fox Cities' junior and senior high schools in gaining their first-hand experiences. Although Appleton has provided the schools for past practice teaching, Kimberly, Kaukauna, Neenah and Menasha all have received Lawrence students in their systems during the present school year.

Placement Details
In placing Lawrence students in area elementary and secondary schools, the Lawrence Education Department works with the administrations and faculties of the cooperating schools and arranges contracts with each school board.

The 68 Lawrence students from the college's academic division thus have been supervised by classroom teachers in addition to guidance staff members, department heads and principals.

In aiding college students to become creative and critical teachers, area schools are helping provide an atmosphere which helps the adolescent realize and justify his existence in school.

Houston Trip For Kimberly School Head

Harold Wentzel to Attend Convention Of Board Members

KIMBERLY—Harold Wentzel, president of the State-School Boards Association, and president of the Kimberly School Board, will represent the state as delegate at the annual convention of the National School Boards Association, Houston, Texas, April 25 through 28.

Wentzel's trip is sponsored by the state association. Representing the Kimberly board at the convention, in keeping with board policy of sending one member each year to a national meeting, will be Maurice Biersteker, Combined Locks.

Convention delegates will discuss school board-superintendent-teacher relations, providing equal educational opportunities for all students and charting a long-range program.

Central Theme
Central theme of the convention is "School Boards Shape a Free Nation's Future." Underlying sessions will be an emphasis on strengthening and preserving local lay responsibility for education so it produces the kind of education needed for a changing world.

Keynote speaker will be Dr. Ernest O. Melby, professor of education at Michigan State University. Another speaker will be Dr. Edward Teller, physicist heading the Lawrence Radiation Laboratory of the University of California. A closing session will consist of a panel discussion on "The Church, The State, and The School." Speakers will be Dr. Edgar Fuller, executive secretary of the Council of Chief State School Officers, and Leo Pfeffer, general counsel of the American Jewish Congress.

Honor Court Planned by Troop 18

Boy Scouts to be Recognized for Advancement, Skills

Boy Scout Troop 18 of Richmond School will hold its first court of honor dinner for about 100 scouts, parents and leaders Monday. The potluck dinner will be at 6:30 p.m. and the program at 7:15.

The troop was organized in September, 1962. At the dinner, boys will receive awards they have earned and be recognized for advancements as Boy Scouts in the troop.

The scouts will demonstrate scouting skills in first aid, axeman, knot tying, Morse code signaling and good scout behavior at patrol booths.

The entire troop will put on a skit with Kermit Hahn, the neighborhood commissioner and a 41-year scout leader.

Larry Hahn, mate of Sea Scout Ship 11, who helped train four patrols from Troop 18 for the snow derby, will conduct a ceremony with six scouts on the meaning of all the ranks of a Boy Scout.

Ranald Grunert, scoutmaster of Troop 18, will explain to parents what the troop does at its weekly meetings and what the summer activities, such as overnight camping, the camporee and attendance at the Gardner Dam Boy Scout Camp, will be.

H. Peter Christensen, troop committee chairman, assisted by his wife, is handling dinner arrangements. Other troop leaders are John Weizand, treasurer; Henry Le Meux, George Deeg, Clifford Lyons and Antone Guckenberger, committeemen; Michael Le Meux Sr., patrol leader; Larry Keuler Jr., assistant patrol leader, and Robert Christensen, troop scribe.

Appleton Students To Hold Fund-Raising Sale for Summer Tour
"Les Voyageurs," a group of Appleton High School students who will spend the summer in Paris, will conduct a rummage sale Friday and Saturday to raise funds for the project.

The sale will be from 4 to 9 p.m. Friday and 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday in Valley Fair Shopping Center. Clothing and miscellaneous household goods will be sold.

Alice French is the student chairman, and Mrs. Howard Grupe is the mothers' chairman.

Appleton Man Fined $100 on Theft Count

Oscar H. Miller, 62, 205 E. Harris St., was fined $100 and costs in Outagamie County Court Branch 2 where he pleaded guilty to a charge that he took six die taps from a store without paying. He was sentenced Tuesday after a pre-sentence investigation. Miller pleaded guilty to the March 14 incident on March 17.

Adoration Set For May 8

St. Mary Church Fourth Catholic Parish in Program

St. Mary Catholic Church will become the fourth Appleton parish to begin a program of a round-the-clock adoration of the Blessed Sacrament May 8.

A solemn high mass at 8 a.m. Friday, May 8, will initiate the perpetual adoration program.

Sponsors of perpetual adoration in St. Mary parish are the Holy Name Society and the Christian Mothers, with the support of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Adam Grill, pastor.

First Program
Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Appleton, started the city's first perpetual adoration program 13 years ago. St. Joseph Catholic Church celebrated the seventh anniversary of its program March 7, estimating that up to that time parishioners spent 125,895 hours in meditative prayer in the church. St. Therese Catholic Church began perpetual adoration last year.

Under this program, parishioners agree to spend one hour each week in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, and at least one person is in the church 24 hours a day.

Other area churches having perpetual adoration are St. Mary, Menasha; Holy Name, Kimberly; St. John, Little Chute, and St. Nicholas, Freedom.

Announcement By Scranton Is Expected

Politicians Say
Governor Cannot Be Silent Long

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Throughout the country, in Republican political circles, there is a general expectation that Governor William Scranton of Pennsylvania will make in the next few days an announcement which will be construed as encouraging his supporters to become active in obtaining for him the Republican presidential nomination at the convention in July.

Lawrence

The Pennsylvania governor has been under pressure from his friends to make an unequivocal statement — telling clearly his intentions. This is because of widespread comment among professional politicians that Governor Scranton cannot afford to remain silent any longer if he really wants the nomination.

Naturally, the admirers of Governor Scranton think he would make a good candidate, and the mention of the availability of Mr. Scranton has indeed evoked a good deal of comment in political circles and in the press. But the fact remains that Mr. Scranton is relatively unknown. His views on public policies, especially current issues, have not been disclosed in any detail, nor is there any general familiarity with his qualifications to be president.

Seven States

One professional politician on the Republican side sized up, for this correspondent, the situation as being largely related to seven big states — New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and California. He says the Republicans must win in four of these and that the Republican candidate is most likely going to be the man who can carry at least four of the seven. Ohio and Illinois are believed to be leaning strongly in the Republican direction. New York is a state considered by many Republicans to be in the doubtful class. So the question finally resolves itself into who has the best chance to carry Pennsylvania, California, Michigan and New Jersey. This is where Governor Scranton comes under consideration, because he is known in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

California Primary

The California primaries on June 2 will, of course, have an important bearing on the whole Republican contest. If Senator Goldwater of Arizona, for example, carries the California primaries, he will continue among the front runners. Many politicians are saying privately, on the other hand, that even if Governor Rockefeller were to win in California, he would not be able to get a majority in the convention. There seems to be a sentiment among some of the professionals who are not identified with any of the various candidates that the New York governor will not be able to win the nomination largely because of the feeling inside the party that the resentment among women voters over his divorce and remarriage would constitute too big an obstacle in the November election.

Two Possibles

The two men who may eventually emerge as the candidates are former Vice President Nixon and Governor Scranton. This is one reason why it is being openly stated by many politicians that, if Governor Scranton doesn't do something soon, the big prize will fall into Mr. Nixon's lap without much effort.

But one of the most interesting aspects of the Republican race is the talk that is going around about the impact of the Democratic vice-presidential nomination on the Republican chances of winning the election. It is frequently stated, for instance, by some of the professional politicians that, if Attorney General Kennedy is nominated for the vice presidency on the Democratic ticket, President Johnson will not be able to carry the south, and he may lose the strength in many of the northern states. Although the "civil rights" bill has been widely advertised as popular in the north, there are signs that a good many of the voters there have been antagonized by it. As far as the south is concerned, the suggestion that the attorney

Vernon County Woman, 71, Named Mother of the Year

OSHKOSH (AP) — Mrs. Josephine Sullivan Nixon of the Vernon County community of Ontario, who was cited 21 years ago for her work to improve conditions in rural communities, is Wisconsin's 1964 Mother of the Year.

She said she was "pleased by the selection. She also said, 'I'll be glad to tell you my age. I'm 71.'"

The choice of Mrs. Nixon, the mother of three, was announced Tuesday by the Wisconsin unit of the American Mothers Inc. She will go to New York City to join representatives of the other states in the National Mother of the Year competition.

Announcement

The choice was announced by Mrs. Bess M. Spees of Oshkosh, chairman of the state selection committee. She said Mrs. Leda Bloom of Route 1, Mukwonago was the first runnerup and Mrs. Elmyra Anderson of Osseo the second runnerup.

A member of Sacred Heart Church at Cashton, Mrs. Nixon is a charter member and the first president of the Vernon County Homemakers. As a teacher, one of her schools was the first in the county to affiliate with the National Parent Teachers Association.

She has been a tireless worker in community affairs, chairman of many groups, including heart fund, blood donors, anti-tuberculosis, rationing, USO, bond drives, Civil Defense and Red Cross.

In 1943 she was publicly honored by the University of Wisconsin for "capable leadership and untiring efforts to improve conditions in rural communities."

Her children are Mrs. Clara McGlynn, a registered nurse; Ross, an employee of the Milwaukee Road, and Robert, a foreman for the Precourt Construction Co.

George Greenwood Chosen to Head Site Improvement

KAUKAUNA — Officers were elected at an organizational meeting of the citizen committee for the improvement of the Grignon Home, Monday.

George R. Greenwood Sr. was named chairman; John Corcoran, vice chairman; Miss Mary Margaret DeClerck, recording secretary, and William Eiting, treasurer. The committee currently has 13 members, but plans are underway to submit an additional 10 names to Mayor Joseph Bayorgeon for recommendation and approval.

The steering committee will make suggestions for the restoration and management of the home to the Kaukauna recreation department. That department will attempt to carry out the recommendations. An official title for the committee will be selected at a 4 p.m. April 6 meeting at the Grignon Home.

The committee plans to tour the home, view items available for display and set up a procedure for orderly development and improvement of the site. Heading a clean-up committee for the home prior to the May 1 opening will be Mrs. Gen. Anderson and James Gertz.

Grignon Home Elects Officers

Alden Johnston, representative of the Outagamie County Historical Society, said a $1,000 legacy left in the Joseph C. McCarty estate for the improvement and development of the Grignon Home told how the money could be used.

Suggestions

To Your Good Health Perspiration Control Needs Correct Solution

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: I am an emotional, nervous person and have perspired profusely under the arms all my adult life. This has caused embarrassment and annoyance.

Dr. Molner

Lately I have used a prescription of 25 per cent aluminum chloride before retiring to Dr. Molner at night. This seems to check the flow considerably and I am pleased with the result, but could it be dangerous? That is, could it interfere with the function of the glands, since I've read that glandular disturbance plays a part in formation of cancer?

(P. L.)

First of all, profuse perspiration is a rather frequent problem. The aluminum chloride solution is very effective and I have recommended it frequently for cases in which the commercial anti-perspirants do not help enough. My suggestion is a solution of from 10 to 25 per cent. It takes some experimenting to find the proportion which is best for each individual.

In some, the 25 per cent solution may cause local skin irritation. These people should stop for a few days, then use a weaker solution. Irritation (if there is any) is the only thing to fear—not cancer. The sweat glands are the only ones involved.

Although the weather is now flavored with spring, the foregoing letter was written while we were still submerged in winter. This shows that people with really excessive perspiration problems don't have them just in summer. They have them the year round. But the aluminum chloride solution is timely now and it can be helpful for a great many people as the weather grows warmer.

You take a bit of cotton and swab the solution on the areas in which the sweat glands are too active. Then just leave it there.

To indicate how serious the problem is to some, here's another letter:

Dear Doctor: One physician says that injections will dry up the sweat glands but side effects are likely; another suggests X-rays but thinks they are too dangerous; a third has tried tranquilizers but they don't help me; the last said a sympathectomy can be performed. I have been debating this. (L.S.)

The sympathectomy (cutting of a nerve) is a rather drastic measure. You should still try aluminum chloride first. According to the code of medicine, the simplest treatments should almost always be tried before resorting to more serious and difficult ones.

Dear Dr. Molner: My husband is a weight-lifter and has been taking concentrated protein in powder and pill form for several years. Now he would like me to give it to our nine-month-old daughter as he feels it will help her have stronger bones and teeth. Will this really help?

(C. L.)

Assuming the baby has a proper diet adding extra protein isn't going to make the bones or teeth extra strong, nor make the baby healthier than healthy.

NOTE TO C.K.S.: No, no objection to an indoor "exercise bicycle." Indeed, a good idea for exercising in bad weather.

Never take a chance on diabetes! For better understanding of this disease, write to Dr. Molner in care of this newspaper for a copy of the booklet, "Diabetes—The Sneaky Disease." Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling. (Copyright, 1964)

THE SOCIALISTS' OMNIBUS BILL OF 1963 NOW BEFORE THE SENATE

The American people are being set up for a blow that would destroy their right to determine for themselves how they will live. What is being piously presented as a humane effort to redress past wrongs—the "Civil Rights" bill—is, in fact, a cynical design to make even the least of us, black and white alike, subject to the whim and caprice of government bureaucrats. Unless American workers, farmers, business and professional men, teachers, homeowners, every citizen awakens now, harsh Federal controls will reach into our homes, jobs, businesses, and schools, into our local and State elections, and into our municipal and State governments.

$100 BILLION BLACKJACK

You should know, through this bill you are to be struck by a $100 Billion Blackjack—almost the total Federal budget. Your tax money is to be used as a weapon against you.

That is the meaning of the Civil Rights bill:

- (1) It would amend every Federal law (hundreds of them) that deals with financing so that each Federal department or agency could make its own regulations to manipulate Federal funds: Each Federal department or agency would define for itself what is "discrimination" and apply its own penalties (Sec. 601-602).
- (2) It would empower Federal political appointees—through the use of the blacklist, cancellation of contracts, foreclosure, and other punitive means—to use almost $100 billion a year to force our people to knuckle under to Executive dictation (Secs. 601-602).

You should know this.

TOTAL FEDERAL CONTROL

The bill now pending in the United States Senate would

- (a) Allow people to be jailed without trial by jury (Titles I, II, III, IV, and VII).

It would

- (b) Allow the government to hold Star Chamber sessions and to imprison those who disclose, without permission, what went on behind its closed doors (Sec. 501).

It would

- (c) Deny an individual the right to freely seek employment without Federal interference as to race or religion—it would deny this right (Titles VI and VII).

It would

- (d) Deny the employer the right to hire, fire, promote and demote without Federal interference as to race or religion—it would deny this right (Titles VI and VII).

It would

- (e) Deny to School Boards (public and private) and to colleges the right to determine, unhampered by the Federal government, how their students and teaching staffs should be handled—it would deny this right (Titles IV, VI and VII).

It would

- (f) Take from local and State officials their right, without Federal interference
  - To handle local and State elections (Title I);
  - To regulate local parks, swimming pools and other recreational facilities (Title II);
  - To regulate hotels, restaurants, motion-picture houses, stadiums, etc. (Title III); and
  - To regulate employment practices (Titles VI and VII).

THE MYSTERY WORD: "DISCRIMINATION"

The bill now pending in the United States Senate would:

- (a) Allow each Federal department and agency to determine for itself what is and what is not "discrimination" (Titles V, VI, and VII)—the bill, itself, does not define the word.
- (b) Allow each Federal department and agency to determine for itself what is and what is not "race" and "religion" (Titles IV, V, VI and VII)—the bill, itself, does not define either word.

Therefore, there would be no uniformity of interpretation. What might be classified as a "discriminatory practice" by one agency, might not be so classified by another agency.

OMNIPOTENT PRESIDENT

And always—if this bill becomes law—there will be the Omnipotent President or his appointees to rule, thumbs up, thumbs down. Sometimes, yes. Sometimes, no.

Only a Dictator has such prerogatives.

It follows, then, under the Socialists' Omnibus Bill—misnamed the Civil Rights Bill—those who enjoy political favor may expect political favors. Others may expect something else.

Such is the significance of the bill now pending in the United States Senate: It would establish the Rule of Man and abolish the Rule of Law.

Six members of the House Committee on the Judiciary, each an attorney and each an expert in this sort of legislation, have said: "The reported bill is not a 'moderate' bill and it has not been 'watered down'. It constitutes the greatest grasp for executive power conceived in the 20th Century."

If you wish this bill defeated, you can defeat it: Write your Senators, both of them. Write them, now, today, and tell them you oppose it. Tell them why.

There is no other way. If you want this bill stopped, write your Senators, now, and tell them so.

Tear sheets of this ad, suitable for reproduction in other newspapers, may be had upon request.

Within The Coverage Of This Bill Federal Inspectors Would Dictate To—

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES:

- As to
1. Handling of pupils.
  2. Employment of faculties.
  3. Occupancy of dormitories.
  4. Use of facilities.

TEACHERS:

- As to
1. Their employment, discharge and promotion.
  2. Preferential treatment of minorities.
  3. Compensation, terms, and conditions of their employment.

HOSPITALS:

- As to
1. Medical and nursing staffs.
  2. Technical, clerical and other employees.
  3. Patients' beds and operating rooms.
  4. Facilities and accommodations.

HOTELS, MOTELS AND RESTAURANTS:

- As to
1. Rental of rooms.
  2. Service of customers.
  3. Hiring, firing and promotion of employees.

STATES AND MUNICIPALITIES:

- As to
1. State FEPC acts.
  2. State Labor laws.
  3. Handling of public facilities.
  4. Supervision of private facilities.
  5. Judges and Law Enforcement Officers.
  6. Handling of elections.

DICTATORIAL ATTORNEY GENERAL

This bill would make the Attorney General a virtual dictator of America's manners and morals. It would grant him unprecedented authority to file suits against property owners, plain citizens and State and local officials, even though the supposed grievant has not filed suit. The Attorney General would become the grievant's lawyer at the taxpayers' expense. The bill grants to the Attorney General—

- (1) The unprecedented power to shop around for a judge he prefers to hear a voting suit (Title I).
- (2) The right to sue an owner of public accommodations before the owner is accused of a "discriminatory practice" (Title II).
- (3) To sue State or local officials concerning public facilities, without an individual having filed suit (Title III).
- (4) To sue local school boards, although no suit has been filed by any school child or other person (Title IV).

Last fall, when broad authority to sue in Civil Rights matters was first proposed, the Attorney General said: "Obviously the proposal injects Federal executive authority into some areas which are not its legitimate concern and vests the Attorney General with broad discretion in matters of great political and social concern." This bill falls within that condemnation.

Bright Harbingers of Springtime

Brussels sprouts add a touch of spring green to this casserole that combines elbow macaroni, tuna, Swiss cheese and a deliciously seasoned sauce. This dish is a hearty meal-in-one that's rich in proteins as well as carbohydrates.

In this version of baked onions the lowly vegetable really comes into its own. Each whole onion is stuffed with a savory ground beef mixture, then baked to fork-tender perfection.

Vegetables Sauced, Baked Or en Casserole . . . They Fit the Season

BY LILLIAN MACKESY
Post-Crescent Food Editor

Although vegetables are available the year around and should be a daily part of menu planning, there's nothing like a fine batch of fresh broccoli, Brussels sprouts, new season carrots or asparagus shipped in from western fields at the beginning of spring. Vegetables on the table are as welcome as the first April shower or the sight of the first pompous robin strutting across the yard. Garden fresh vegetables and spring are go-togethers in my menu book.

Then, don't forget those budget-saving onions . . . those big ones . . . white or yellow . . . which make wonderful eating when stuffed with an interesting mixture of ground beef and cheese. Eggplant should be another favorite at this time of year. It looks elegant with its rich purple tones. It can be stuffed in the Persian manner called "dolmeh" . . . it can be scorched and mashed with spices in Arabian tradition . . . or combined with ground lamb as the Greeks prepare it for their "mous-saka."

Fresh vegetables served with an appropriate butter . . . parsley butter . . . honey butter . . . lemon butter . . . garlic butter to name a few . . . are all delicious as a spring side dish on the table.

The recipes today for the most part center on entrees instead, those dishes which may be served as a one-dish supper or luncheon favorite and can be teamed with just a salad and a grand dessert to make a wonderful meal. Breads may be added in the form of hot rolls, biscuits, toast points or any of the quick breads unless the calories are being watched.

Here's to some lovely main-dish eating!

POTLUCK CASSEROLE WITH BRUSSELS SPROUTS

1½ tablespoons salt
4½ quarts rapidly boiling water
3 cups elbow macaroni
2 pkgs. frozen Brussels sprouts
2 cans tuna
1 cup diced Swiss cheese
Paprika

3 tablespoons butter
½ cup chopped celery
¼ cup chopped onion
3 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon monosodium glutamate
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon crushed tarragon
1 cup instant nonfat dry milk
3 cups whole milk
1 tablespoon lemon juice

Add 1½ tablespoons salt to rapidly boiling water; gradually add macaroni so water keeps boiling. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until macaroni tender. Drain in colander; set aside.

Prepare Brussels sprouts, cooking according to package directions until almost done. Drain and set aside until later.

Meanwhile, prepare sauce:

Melt butter in saucepan; add celery and onion and cook three minutes. Quickly stir in flour and seasonings. Stir dry milk into whole milk; add slowly to mixture in saucepan. Cook and stir until smooth and thickened. Remove from heat; then add lemon juice.

Mix sauce with macaroni, sprouts, tuna and half the cheese. Turn into three-quart casserole. Top with remaining cheese; sprinkle with paprika. Bake in 350-degree oven 20 to 30 minutes or until bubbling hot.

Garnish with parsley or a few reserved cooked Brussels sprouts, if desired.

BROCCOLI AND HAM DIVAN

1 large bunch fresh broccoli
Boiling water
1 teaspoon salt
2 cups diced cooked ham
Mustard-Cheese Sauce
1 cup soft bread cubes
3 tablespoons butter, melted
Wash and trim broccoli. Cut large stalks in halves or quarters. Place in saucepan with boiling water and salt. Cover and parboil until about half done, lifting the lid once or twice during cooking.

Arrange half the broccoli in the bottom of an oblong baking dish. Cover with layer of cooked ham, then mustard-cheese sauce. Blend bread cubes with melted butter; place bread cubes over top of mixture and add remaining broccoli. Bake in 350-degree oven for 30 minutes. Half the broccoli may be thoroughly cooked and used as a garnish, if preferred. Recipe serves six persons.

MUSTARD-CHEESE SAUCE

2 tablespoons butter
1½ tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
Dash black pepper
½ cup shredded sharp cheese (American or Cheddar)
Melt butter in saucepan. Blend in flour until smooth. Add

Turn to Page 15, Col. 4

Jewel green in color, fresh broccoli brings beauty and appetite appeal to any dinner plate. It's cooked "Divan" style in this recipe, which means layers of par-boiled broccoli and meat are baked with a flavorful sauce. The topping is butter-drenched bread cubes.

Eggplant is an economical delicacy that's been around since Old Testament days in the Near East. The recipe for Mock Byzantine Eggplant combines canned tomato-vegetable juice with a mixture of eggplant strips and green pepper slices. Spiced with oregano and garlic, this vegetable combination takes on a continental air.

'Operation Hoagie' Set for April 11

'Operation Hoagie' opens Saturday, April 11, for members of St. James Methodist Church and their friends.

For members of the church fund-raising projects committee it will be a busy day that starts early in the morning. For the rest of the church members it will be a treat day with a special sandwich supper being made for them . . . at a price, of course, to swell the coffers of the church building fund.

Those huge, meal-in-one sandwiches known variously as Hoagies . . . submarines . . . and Po' Boys depending on locality will be assembled and sold by order on April 11 at the home of projects committee co-chairmen Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fargo, 1315 E. Marquette St.

The Hoagie, or its huge counterpart, usually is a collection of cold meats, lettuce, pickles, onions, sliced tomatoes and dressing. Layered on large rolls or French bread loaves sliced lengthwise each sandwich makes a complete meal and often is served to several persons when cut in individual portions.

The project is an experiment in the committee's fund-raising activities and plans to date include the April 11 sale of Hoagies by order only and the sale of the sandwiches May 9 at the Good Neighbor Fair held every year at Valley Fair Shopping Center.

Members working on the orders committee include Mrs. Fargo, Mrs. Fred Hill, 2518 N. Union St., and Mrs. John Cannon, 1106 Moorpark Ave.

Plans have been made for customer pick-up of the sandwiches between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Saturday, April 11, is 'Operation Hoagie' day for members of St. James Methodist Church in a novel drive for augmenting their building fund. That's the day when project committee members will gather bright and early at the home of co-chairmen Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fargo, 1315 E. Marquette St., to fill all the orders for the meal-in-one sandwiches for customer pick-up between the hours of 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Pictured above at a recent trial run are, from the left, Mrs. Fargo, Mrs. and Mr. Fred Hill. An exaggerated close-up of the Hoagie is held by Charles Mader, above. (Post-Crescent Photos)

Don Bosco Guild Tells April Plans

The Don Bosco Guild has announced its plans for April. A roller skating party will take place at Fox Valley Roller Rink at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. The group will hold a pot luck supper at 5 p.m. Sunday at St. Joseph School Cafeteria.

The Rev. George Henseler will show 3-D slides on Wednesday in the cafeteria. Nomination of officers and committee chairmen will also take place.

A hayride is planned for April 18. Members will meet at St. Joseph School at 7:15 p.m. Volleyball will be featured at the April 22 meeting with bowling scheduled for April 25.

Nylons Will Retain Self-Crimp Fiber

Better fit, greater comfort, and shape retention are promised by new nylon hosiery. A self-crimping property, introduced recently into the fiber, is said to remain with the stockings throughout a normal life of wearings and washings in soap or detergent suds.

Postman Tells College Grad The Other Side of the Story

BY ANN LANDERS
DEAR ANN LANDERS: May I offer a bit of advice to the college graduate who wants to be a postman. He thinks it will be a life free of pressure, aggravation and grief? All he sees is fresh air and exercise. Well, I've been a postman for 19 years and I can tell him a few things he doesn't know. He will have to get up at 5 a. m. in the morning and report to the terminal at 6:30 a. m. For the first two years he will "run spare" which means he may be sent anywhere in the city to deliver mail on a route he never saw before. And there's more than mail, Friend. There are magazines, parcels, C.O.D. items, registered mail and sometimes that bloomin' bag weighs 45 pounds. Fresh air? Indeed. Also rain, snow, sleet, fog, smog and hail. And please don't forget about those dogs who think a mailman is lunch. I'm now kicking myself because I thought two years of high school was plenty and a civil service job meant the end of all my worries.—Flat Feet
Dear Feet: Thanks for the letter. It's not every day we get a letter straight from a mailman. Here's one from the wife of a colleague of yours. DEAR ANN LANDERS: For the past seven years I've been the wife of a postman so I feel qualified to answer "Pick-A-Dilly."

What a man does for a living should be his choice. If the girl he wants to marry cannot be proud of him and his work, he should marry someone who can. A college degree does not guarantee success or contentment in a job. What is important is that the man enjoy his work. My postman husband does.

His pay is not high but the work is satisfying and challenging. He is usually home when the children arrive from school. We do a great many things together, as a family.

My husband is a respected member of the community. He has made more friends than most executives make in a lifetime. He doesn't have ulcers, high blood pressure or heart trouble. I would not trade him for the highest paid executive in America—Wife of a First Class Male.

Dear First Class Wife: Thanks for the cheers. You sound like the kind of a gal many an executive wishes he had.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: The secretary of a close friend stole $20,000 from him by altering and forging checks. This close friend is a sensitive person and was terribly upset when the theft was discovered. Now the poor soul can't decide whether to press charges or let the woman off.

My husband is an attorney and my father is a judge, so our friend feels we can make the decision for him. My husband believes the man should discharge the woman and try to recover as much of the loss as possible. She is a wife and mother and if she has to go to prison he feels it would be a terrible blow to her family.

As an attorney I say my husband ought to realize this woman committed a criminal offense and that she should pay the penalty. We have argued this back and forth and now we want your opinion. Thank you.—Ten to One

Dear One: What good are laws if people decide for themselves they are going to ignore the law and make up their own rules? The judge will decide if this woman is entitled to probation. If she has children living at home she could conceivably escape prison and be required to repay the money over a specified period of time.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (Copyright, 1964)

Return to Illinois

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brunke and their children have returned to their home in Park Ridge, Ill., after spending Easter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Brunke, 38 Bellaire Court.

An inspection of the things left behind by the Easter Bunny was one of the first tasks of Mrs. John W. Reynolds, wife of Wisconsin's governor, when she arrived home from Europe Tuesday night. The check-up was asked by the family's younger daughter, Molly. Mrs. Reynolds participated in the three-week tour of Europe made by a Wisconsin trade mission. The governor scrapped plans to lead the delegation and stayed behind to campaign in the state's presidential primary against Gov. George Wallace of Alabama. (AP Wire-photo)

Food Chopper Needs Conditioning

A new iron food chopper needs to be conditioned before use in order to remove an oily protective finish applied at the factory.

First wash it in hot soap or detergent suds. Then—using all the cutting attachments—grind a piece of suet followed by some crackers or dry bread.

Finally, re-wash all the parts thoroughly in clean hot suds and rinse water. Wipe dry and allow to air before reassembling the parts.

Research to Seek Answers To River Foam

A decade of research by producers of detergents and suppliers of ingredients has come up with a way to prevent detergent-caused foam on streams and rivers.

Newly developed "soft" detergents will replace all slow-to-decompose detergents by the end of 1965. These improved products, sold under familiar names, will retain all the cleaning power of present brands—and at no extra cost.

However, when the detergent industry's voluntary changeover has been completed next year, not all water problems will be alleviated. Due to increased population and industrial production, many existing water and sewage treatment facilities are inadequate. Many communities will still need to take corrective steps to satisfactorily solve the over-all problem of water pollution, so that every American can enjoy pure water.

How to Halt Peeling of Trim Paint

BY ROGER C. WHITMAN

Q: We have a masonry house with wood trim, window frames, etc. We use a top quality trim paint, but soon after applying it, the paint peels off. This has happened several times. How can this be corrected?

A: The usual cause of paint peeling provided the surface to which it is applied is absolutely clean and free of all trace of grease and soot, is moisture working from underneath and pushing the paint off the surface. The trim may not be tightly joined to the masonry, or the joints of the frames themselves may have loosened, or there may be faulty flashings. Check all these points and tightly caulk any openings, using a caulking compound with a caulking gun.

Q: We installed wall-to-wall carpeting in a long hall in our apartment. We did the job ourselves and wrinkles are developing at a few places. Is there any way we can make the carpet lie smoothly?

A: The carpeting will have to be taken up and relaid, using a "knee kicker" to stretch the carpet properly and prevent the wrinkling. Professionals usually use this. You might be able to borrow this instrument from the dealer from whom the carpeting was purchased. He can also instruct you in how to use it.

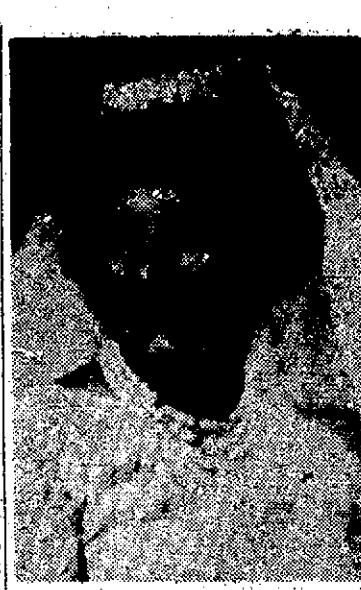

Q: We moved into a new home more than a year ago and last summer the fly situation was so bad that our house siding and window frames are literally covered with fly "specks." We will have to repaint next summer. What can we do so the situation won't be repeated? Is there anything you could recommend in the line of fly catchers? We are located between two farms and have blamed part of the problem on that. Neighbors have a similar problem, but not as bad as ours. Would the color of our house (blue) have anything to do with the fly attraction?

A: Research has shown that the blue end of the color spectrum attracts insects more than the red end; and the brighter the color, the more it attracts. So the color of your house has contributed somewhat to the problem. Yellow has been found to provide a practical color, while attracting a minimum number of insects.

I suggest applying a residual solution of 5 per cent DDT to your painted siding and screens, as well as window frames, to kill insects alighting on them. Effects last for several weeks and treatment should be renewed at intervals during the heavy fly season. Special outdoor bug-repelling light bulbs and electric insect traps are available at electric appliance dealers, large hardware stores and garden centers. These are effective "fly catchers."

OPEN HOUSE REFRESHMENTS

Dear Louise: Our son is getting married next month to a girl whose home is about 500 miles from here. Our relatives and friends will be unable to attend because of the distance. The couple will be here two weeks after the wedding and we will have an Open House for them. Will you please tell me the proper things to serve. I have no idea and want to do the right thing. Must these refreshments be served at tables or may they be served on trays to be held on the lap?

Louise Davis Answers:
For an Open House which is usually an afternoon party, I suggest punch and canapés. If you like you could add dainty finger sandwiches, little frosted cakes (petits fours), salted nuts, bon-bons and mints. Canapés could be eliminated if they are difficult to obtain in your locality in which case you would need more sandwiches to make up the difference. There would be no need for a wedding cake as your party will be an Open House rather than a wedding reception.
The simplest and richest way to serve the refreshments would be to have them on your dining table and let people help themselves. If you use dessert or salad size plates, they can accommodate the punch cups and anything else the guests take from the table. By holding such a plate, a guest doesn't have

A Lovelier You

Schoolgirl Giggles

When a group of girls begins to giggle behind their hands, the people within earshot wish for a quick getaway. Nothing makes a boy more uncomfortable than a covey of giggling females. He's convinced that the joke's on him. To adults the antics seem childish, amusing to see but jangling to hear.
For the sake of appeal, a teen really must avoid a public display of giggles. Besides, given free rein, giggling can become a habit. One hears girls and women who end every sentence with a nervous or apologetic giggle. And it marks them as self-conscious and unpoised. Yet they may be neither. They simply may be suffering a giggle handover from childhood.
In any case, the afflicted is seldom aware of her problem. You become so inured to the sound of your laughter that its quality is lost on you. If you wish to gain awareness, make a point of listening when you laugh.
If you hear a low, smooth, warm flow of real mirth, you're in the clear. A high, rapid "tee-hee" signals the giggling habit. Just how can you break it? Take a deep breath at the end of a sentence. You can't giggle and breathe in at the same time. Also concentrate on what you are saying, rather than on the impression you might be making. To another's words give your undivided attention. Interests balks the untoward giggle and releases winning laughter—in the right places.

Do you have a hand problem? Send today for Lovelier Hands, a booklet that covers every step in a quest for hand beauty. It tells how to keep

Immunization For Measle Virus Vital Discovery

NEW YORK—Why did measles cross the road? To get to the chicken on the other side—as every Harvard measles researcher knows.

Back in 1964, scientists succeeded in culturing measles virus. At first it would only grow in monkey and human kidney tissue. But later it was adapted to fertilized hens' eggs, and finally to chick-embryo cells. The measles virus thrived on the chick embryo.

By 1966, Nobel-prize winner Dr. John F. Enders and his associates at Harvard—with the help of thousands of unborn chickens—had prepared a live-virus measles vaccine. Today that vaccine, is available to all who want immunity to measles.

Disease Caused by Virus
 Measles is, of course, caused by a virus. It usually occurs in epidemic, and, for some reason, during the spring months. It is very contagious, and at one time or another about 98 per cent of the population gets measles, mostly during childhood. Chances are that you have had measles even though you may not remember it.

Characterized by fever, a cough, and a rash about three to five days after the first symptoms of discomfort, measles is rare in adults. The illness generally lasts four to ten days. Once you have had this disease you develop an immunity to it.

Can Cause Brain Damage
 Although lightly regarded by many people, measles is in fact a serious health problem. All too often it is a killer or the cause of mental crippling so severe that the victim survives only as a mental defective.

Some 20 million Americans are susceptible to measles at the present time. The birth rate adds about four million each year.

Throughout the world, measles is responsible for the deaths of many children, particularly those in underdeveloped countries. In some African nations it causes half the child deaths. In 1961, more than 500 deaths in the United States were officially listed as caused by measles. Poliomyelitis—a disease that has never been treated as a joke—killed only 120.

Many after-Effects
 Measles kills in many ways. It is sometimes a direct cause of fatal pneumonia. More often it lays the ground work for a fatal bacterial case. It is particularly dangerous to persons with tuberculosis.

One of the most severe after-effects of measles is encephalitis—brain inflammation—so sweeping that it causes death or permanent mental damage. Those victims who do not die often end up in institutions for the mentally defective.

It is also possible that measles is responsible for far more central nervous system disease than is indicated by statistics.

Girdle Flocking Adds Soft Comfort

The newest development in foundations is flocking, which adds new beauty and comfort to girdles, corselets, and other support styles. These feminine floral designs—applied to the inside so the patterns show through the sheer material—are soft but firm enough to substitute for support panels. The flocking is just as permanent to frequent laundering as the fabric itself.

Sterilize Branches In Hot Soapsuds

Did you know that hot soapsuds will help to preserve the beauty of flowering branches after they are cut? Just wash the stems and the vase with suds after the branches are brought into the house.

Then repeat the treatment, with a change of water, about every third day. This stops the growth of bacteria, which cause objectionable odors and shorten the life of the branches.

vaccine administered with gamma globulin, giving children immunity against measles with only one visit to the doctor, and with little or no reaction. The immunity is expected to be permanent.

Thus, another killer and crippler of children will be eradicated, thanks to the combined efforts of dedicated scientists and cooperative chickens.

The measles virus also very often causes inflammation of the middle ear. This may lead to permanent and occasionally total deafness.

In terms of cost of hospitalization, medical care, and school days lost, the total illness is of major significance during epidemic years.

Known in 16th Century
 Recognized as a separate disease since the tenth century, when Arabian physicians described it, measles foiled physicians' attempts to treat it satisfactorily until well into the 20th century.

The 1954 breakthrough by the Harvard Medical School scientists, who succeeded in culturing measles virus, led directly to the preparation of the live-virus measles vaccine in 1958 by Dr. Enders and his associates.

Over the next three years, extensive trials, in the words of researchers, "clearly demonstrated the feasibility of widespread immunization" with the vaccine. Then the steps from laboratory to large-scale production began. An important step was taken with the help of germ-free embryos from a flock of California chickens.

Available to Doctors
 After more than 35 separate tests of safety and quality, the first lots of vaccine were produced in 1962. In March of last year, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, Anthony J. Celebrezze announced that measles immunizing vaccine had been approved by the U.S. Surgeon General and would be made available immediately to the nation's doctors.

Millions of children have already received measles-vaccine injections, and millions more will be immunized in the coming months as more vaccine is made available to doctors. The

Sheinwold Meet the Bridge Menagerie

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD
If you play bridge long enough you get to know a lot of animals. You meet the duck, the pigeon and the top dog. You might even meet all three in a single hand.

West opens the three of hearts, and South wins with the jack. South craftily returns the ten of clubs, hoping to duck this trick around to East.

If South succeeds in this maneuver, West is the pigeon. East can win the first club trick with the queen, but his heart return does not enable West to defeat the contract. South still has a heart stopper.

When South regains the lead he pushes the jack of clubs through West for a finesse. The entire suit comes in, with the ace of diamonds as entry. Declarer makes four clubs, with two tricks in each other suit, for a total of ten tricks.

New Creature
A new creature, the counter-duck, comes to West's rescue. West must not play low when South leads the ten of clubs at the second trick. West must counter-duck by playing the king of clubs.

Declarer must win in dummy with the ace since it does him no good to refuse the trick. When South returns a club from dummy, East must play low.

South wins with the jack of clubs but cannot develop the suit any more. South wins only two tricks in each suit and West is the top dog.

I hope all you bridge cats can bear this.

Daily Question
Partner opens with one no trump, and the next player passes. You hold: S J 9 7 2; H A 9 5 3 2; D 8; C K 7 4. What do you say?

Answer: Bid two clubs, the Stayman Convention. If partner can show a major, you will raise to game in that major. If partner bids two diamonds (denying a major suit), you will bid two hearts.

Helen Dixon, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Dixon, 614 E. Grant St., a junior at the College of St. Catherine, St. Paul, Minn., is a member of the lighting crew for Little Mary Sunshine, a musical parody which will be presented April 9 to 11.

A dozen high school students who are serving as University of Wisconsin summer sessions high school representatives were guests at a special luncheon on the Madison campus. The group includes Ann Rees and Lesanne Stodolick, Appleton; David Brown and Jane Borchers, Oshkosh.

The representatives, part of a statewide team of students promoting summer study, were selected by their class counselors on the basis of outstanding scholarship and leadership records.

The program was initiated last fall and is currently working with 30 students in 12 of the state's largest high schools. Student projects this year have included writing articles for their school newspapers, distributing literature and questionnaires about summer study, speaking before school assemblies, calling meetings of students interested in summer classes, designing bulletin boards and setting up information booths.

LaVahn Hoh, a senior from Appleton at Wisconsin State College-Eau Claire, is among a group of 21 Eau Claire State College Players who spent a weeklong sightseeing and play-going trip in New York City. During the week in New York the students saw seven plays: "Foxy," "The Deputy," "Boys from Syracuse," "Luther," "Nobody Loves an Albatross," "Funny Girl," "Dylan," and one opera, "Falstaff."

Kathleen Pierre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Pierre, 1108 W. Locain St., is among 78 students at the University of Dubuque, Iowa, who joined campus sororities and fraternities this spring. A freshman, she joined Delta Phi Sigma Sorority.

Four Fox Cities students are candidates for seats on the 1964-1965 student senate at Carroll College, Waukesha. The list of 50 candidates will be pared to 25 nominees in a primary election April 7, and the student body will choose 13 senators in a general election April 14. Fox Cities candidates include Patricia Hopfenberger, 1336 W. Grant St.; Richard Ottman, 1723 N. Alvin St.; and David Schilling, 403 E. Franklin St., all of Appleton, and Mary Ellen Mills, 215 N. Pine St., Kimberly.

Reynolds Pleads for Rush On Polls by 'Good People'

Substantial Wallace Vote Will Tarnish Wisconsin's Progressive Image, He Says

BY FRANK CREPEAU

ASHLAND (AP)—Gov. John W. Reynolds pushed his campaign in Wisconsin's far north today where he pleaded with the state's "good people" to parade to the polls Tuesday and smash the presidential bid of Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace.

Reynolds told a breakfast meeting of Ashland and Bayfield business leaders this morning that Wisconsin has "a great opportunity to make a contribution to the brotherhood of men."

The governor said that "if we can bury Wallace in Wisconsin it will hearten the decent people from coast to coast."

Reynolds told receptive audiences in Baldwin and Eau Claire Wednesday night that the "eyes of the nation—yes, of the world" will be on Wisconsin to see how many votes the segregationist governor can collect in the state.

He warned that a substantial Wallace vote would tarnish Wisconsin's image as a progressive state and deal a "tremendous blow" to the civil rights bill now before Congress.

3-Way Contest

Reynolds described the three-way primary contest as an "unreal and unique election," and maintained that none of the entrants is a serious candidate for the office of president.

Reynolds heads a list of Democratic national convention delegates pledged to President Johnson. Wallace has his own Democratic list and says he is now a serious presidential candidate although he entered the Wisconsin primary chiefly to fight the civil rights bill.

Rep. John W. Byrnes is the Republican favorite son candidate, heading a list of uncommitted delegates.

Wallace Moves Into Milwaukee

BY JOHN IGLEHART

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Segregationist Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama encountered the first racial incident of his Wisconsin presidential primary election bid as he moved his campaign into Milwaukee, the state's population center, Wednesday night.

Wallace spoke before a turn-away crowd on the city's South Side, where 24 hours earlier Polish-American segments of the population had been urged to reject his campaign.

More than 500 persons heard his address in Serb Memorial Hall, and police estimated another 100 persons were turned away. About 60 representatives of eight civil rights groups picketed the hall.

Two Negroes — Inside, two Negroes were asked to leave by Bronko Gruber, who introduced the Alabama governor. Gruber said he wanted the men to leave because they had remained seated during the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner."

The Negroes were loudly booed until they left the hall, and other Negroes booed Gruber, who operates a tavern in a Negro neighborhood.

After his address, Wallace said the meeting was "one of the best and one of the most enthusiastic" in his Democratic campaign for next Tuesday's election. He spent more than half an hour signing autographs and shaking hands after his speech.

Police Escort

He left with a police escort through a rear door to avoid the pickets. Earlier the pickets were twice told by police there were too many people in front of the building, and some would have to move to the side.

Few Negroes live on the South Side, which was a center of opposition to open housing legislation recently defeated by the State Legislature.

State Sen. Casimir Kendzior-ski, D-Milwaukee, told news-men that Wallace would get a "heavy vote" in his South Side district.

Wallace is opposed in the pri-

Bulk of Wallace Votes May Come From 4 Districts

MADISON (AP)—Four congressional districts, encompassing a one-time stronghold of the late Sen. Joseph F. McCarthy, can be expected to give Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace the bulk of his votes in Tuesday's Democratic presidential primary contest.

That opinion is advanced in a 10-page study of Wisconsin voting trends issued today by the University of Wisconsin Bureau of Government.

Wallace opposes Wisconsin Gov. John W. Reynolds in the primary. Reynolds heads a slate of delegates pledged to President Johnson. Wallace has made his campaign a protest to the federal civil rights bill championed by the President.

The Bureau of Government study notes that Wisconsin's presidential primary ranks as one of the most unpredictable in the nation because voters are not bound to identify their party affiliation. With Rep. John W. Byrnes of Green Bay the unopposed favorite son candidate on the Republican ballot, the Bureau concludes that the Democratic primary will attract the major share of the votes.

"A significant number of voters seem to go the places where the excitement lies, perhaps as a calculated choice, perhaps simply as a response to events," the bureau's report said.

Experiment Advances Life Expectancy in Space Environment

Five Men Live in Sealed Chamber for Thirty Days

SEATTLE (AP)—Thirty days of confinement in a sealed chamber for five men have led to a "major breakthrough" in research into whether American astronauts can live indefinitely in the hostile environment of space.

"We are on the threshold of being able to sustain men in outer space for as long as we need," said Dr. Eugene B. Koonin, director of biotechnology and human research for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's office of advanced research and technology, after the men emerged.

"The basic principles and techniques of life-support systems have been proved workable and sound. Now we refine and advance them," he said.

"We are already looking and preparing far beyond."

Refinements Needed

Refinements and further advancements are needed, but the basic principles and techniques for survival outside the earth's atmosphere were found to be sound.

CAMP MCCOY (AP)—The first of the support and training troops will move into Camp McCoy next Monday to prepare for the arrival of 38,830 National Guard and Army Reserve members during the summer.

The camp will be manned by about 500 enlisted men and 55 officers. The first contingent will include about 200 men from Fort Leonard Wood in Missouri, Fort Carson in Colorado and Fort Benjamin Harrison in Indiana. A second group will arrive about the middle of this month.

Alaskan Travel Is Recommended

WENATCHEE, Wash. (AP)—Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall has recommended travel by outsiders to Alaska to help that state recover from its recent earthquake.

At a news conference here Wednesday, Udall said vacationers can contribute toward economic recovery there by "making this the year to see Alaska."

Udall was here for a regional outdoor recreation conference.

To Resolve Conflicts New Appointments Law Is Being Drafted

Vietnamese in Clashes With Cong on Delta

Nixon Visiting in Area 20 Miles From Scene of Fighting

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—South Vietnamese forces clashed with Communist guerrillas in the Mekong River delta today within 20 miles of an area Richard M. Nixon was visiting.

Casualties were believed to have been heavy. The former U.S. vice president apparently did not get near the action.

Inspects Hamlets

Nixon had flown by helicopter to Tan An, 30 miles south of Saigon, to inspect some hamlets the government has set up in a crash program to push out the Red Viet Cong. U.S. sources said the firing began when the government mounted an operation earlier in the day.

Nixon conferred with Gen. Paul D. Harkins, commander of U.S. forces in Viet Nam, and scheduled another meeting with U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, his vice-presidential running mate in 1960.

Nixon arrived Wednesday on a world tour.

Nixon, who has not shut the door on a draft for the Republican presidential nomination, said it was natural that he and Lodge should talk politics. But neither he nor Lodge would reveal what they said.

"We're old friends," Lodge said. "I briefed him about Viet Nam. I think we'd better let it stand at that."

Lodge, surprise winner of the Republican presidential primary in New Hampshire by a write-in vote, is bound by foreign service regulations from engaging in politics.

Knowles Charges Wisconsin Is in Stagnant Stage

Warren Knowles, the Republican candidate for governor, said Wednesday night that Wisconsin, "once progressive, has lapsed into stagnation after only five years of Democratic govern-

nors."

He told the Portage County GOP caucus at Stevens Point that the state was "on dead center economically, and it's up to the Republicans to get it moving again."

Referring to the decision of a Milwaukee firm to move part of its production system to Kentucky, Knowles asked, "How many more Cutler-Hammers do we need before the people of this state wake up to the fact that it takes an employer before there is an employee, and that we can't fight unemployment by chasing business away?"

22 From Downer Staff to Join Lawrence University

Merger of Colleges Effective July 1, Dr. Tarr Announces

Twenty-two staff members from Milwaukee-Downer College have accepted positions for next fall at Lawrence University, it was announced today by President Curtis W. Tarr of Lawrence College.

When plans were drawn for the July 1 merger of the two colleges to create Lawrence University, it was stipulated that all Downer faculty members be offered jobs equal in rank and tenure to those held on the Milwaukee campus. April 1 was the

34 School Posts Filled

22 Vacancies Still Remain on Appleton Schools' Faculties

Thirty-four of the 56 vacancies in the Appleton public schools teaching staff for next year have been filled, according to Supt. of Schools Royce E. Kurtz.

Vacancies still remaining in areas difficult to fill include secondary school English, specialized areas such as reading, physical therapy and special education, and the primary grades.

The 56 vacancies include eight additional teachers, all at the secondary school level, and 48 replacements for teachers who are retiring or leaving.

Need More Teachers

Twenty-three additional teachers were needed this year. The number is expected to be lower for next year because St. Bernadette Catholic School will open next fall, Kurtz said.

There will be 11 new teachers at Appleton High School—eight replacements and three additional teachers. Madison Junior High School will have four replacements and three additional teachers. Roosevelt Junior High needs four replacements and one additional teacher, and Wilson Junior High will have one replacement and one additional. Four resource teachers must be replaced. There are 27 vacancies in the elementary schools.

Kurtz has been traveling to area colleges and universities during the last month to interview prospective teachers.

Distribute Proportionately

State Tax Department to Dispose of 1,000 Used, Unneeded File Cabinets

State and county officials are not interested in flooding the filing cabinet market and are seeking other ways in which to dispose of over 1,000 no longer-needed cabinets.

The county's property and insurance committee met today with J. L. Tibbets, state income tax assessor who has the 1,000 used cabinets which he would like to dispose of.

The cabinets became available when some functions of the tax office were consolidated into automated processes in Madison. The local tax office is in the Outagamie County Courthouse and services some 20 counties.

Not Economical

County Business Administrator Alvin Woehler said today that to offer the 1,000 plus cabinets for sale would not be economical. He cited other industries which have gone into open filing systems and have attempted to sell their old cabinets. The cabinets have been "stored," he said, "until the market is better."

Tibbets will contact the com-

ty seats of each of the 19 counties which have invested funds into the local office to determine if those agencies are interested in taking a proportionate share of the equipment.

He said if the counties' share of the investment they have in the local tax office is computed to a percentage, the percentage could be used to determine how many of the cabinets each county should get.

The used cabinets could then be sent to the counties with the cost of freight to be levied against the county. Menominee County has no investment in the tax office and therefore would not be eligible for cabinets.

Woehler said it should be understood all the counties should accept the equipment and not cash. He said it would be impractical to send equipment to half the counties who own it, then try to sell the other share and send the money.

Tibbets said he has about 1,000 single drawer filing cabinets which are no longer needed and an undetermined number of

$2.3 Million Bond Issue Gets Approval

Funds to Finance Junior High School, Fire Station Work

A $2,335,000 bond issue for school and fire station construction was approved Wednesday night by the Appleton council.

By unanimous vote, the council accepted the low interest bid of 3.06 per cent submitted earlier in the week by the First Boston Corp. of Chicago.

Ald. Harold Hannemann (10th), finance committee chairman, said "I think the city got a terrific interest rate in the sale of these corporate bonds. It indicates Appleton is in good financial shape."

With money now available, construction of the $1.8 million Albert Einstein Junior High School should get underway. Contracts were awarded several weeks ago by the board of education.

Construction of the new No. 1 fire station at Atlantic and Drew streets is progressing rapidly, according to city officials.

In wading through a heavy agenda, the council:

—Completed purchase of properties from Zwicker Knitting Mills and Howard Campbell in connection with the Washington-Franklin Street project.

—Directed the city attorney to proceed with condemnation of three other properties needed for the street extension route, and hired appraisers to set values.

—Rejected an offer of James Meiers to sell the city a strip of land needed for constructing a sidewalk, and told the city attorney to proceed with condemnation.

—Decided to reject an offer of Du Chateau Real Estate to sell the city land for expanding Hoover Park, citing the cost.

Water Ordinances

—Appointed City Atty. Frederick Froehlich and Works Director Robert W. Bues to a committee to work with the water commission in the recodification of ordinances relating to the operation of the water utility.

—Okayed a request of the Fox

Hot Lunch Tickets

To be Sold at KHS

KAUKAUNA — Tickets for the hot lunch program at Kaukauna High School next week will be sold at the school office from 9 a.m. to noon Friday, according to Gerald Kroll, assistant principal.

While inservice training is valuable, Kurtz said, the school system can benefit more by securing consultants who are experts in their fields to spend time in an actual working relationship with the staff.

Various Areas

Kurtz said he hoped two to three consultants can be secured during the year in various areas, including reading, language arts and possibly mathematics and science. A language arts curriculum study is under way, and a mathematics curriculum study was completed last year.

The consultants usually work with small groups of teachers in their field to plan specific programs and discuss new techniques, ideas and materials, Kurtz said. The planning sessions will come after or without visits to the classrooms.

Rollerskaters Plan Hobo Affair Friday

Fox Cities Youth for Christ will sponsor a "hobo" rollerskating party from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Friday in the Fox Valley Roller Rink, Neenah.

Prizes will be awarded for the most original and most shabby costumes and to the school with the largest group present.

Transfer Files

Tibbets said the local office would transfer some of the remaining files into the newer used files, then get rid of the older files. Some of the files which would be available to the counties are still in Madison where they were sent to have the contents micro-filmed. The files will be returned to Appleton shortly.

County supervisors will be asked to vote on a new rental agreement with the tax office at its April meeting. The tax office has agreed to rent 9,630 square feet of space in the courthouse annex for a yearly rate of $24,000. The rate last year was $27,000, but the tax office occupied rooms in the third floor and basement, which has been taken over by the county.

If believed the county welfare department will move into the space vacated by the tax office.

Appleton May Get Federal-State Aid For Street Project

Bues Says State Commission Has Almost Approved Assistance

Appleton may receive state-federal aid for the Prospect Avenue-Memorial Drive widening and resurfacing project.

Public Works Director Robert W. Bues has told the common council officials of the State Highway Commission have all but approved the project in conjunction with the paving of Badger Avenue.

The Prospect-Memorial intersection has been a traffic trouble spot for years.

Last year the city was going to undertake the project on its own, but withheld action at the request of Bues and the street-sanitation committee, which indicated Appleton might have a chance for state assistance.

Represent Cost

Under the present formula, the city's share of the Badger

Avenue paving and Prospect-Memorial intersection work would be 15 per cent of the total cost. The state would arrange to pay the other 85 per cent.

However, the city must purchase the land needed for widening the intersection.

The council Wednesday night asked the Appleton Board of Appraisers to appoint two appraisers to put a fair market price on five parcels of land needed for the work.

The parcels, most of them small, are at the intersection of Badger Avenue and Memorial Drive, and Prospect Avenue and Memorial Drive.

Asks City Policy

Ald. R. P. Groh (8th), in whose ward the intersection lies, asked what policy the city would follow if some owners did not want to sell their property to the city. Groh expressed fear some resident may be left with a short piece of frontage which would cause a hardship.

"In such a case, I would say if the city has to condemn, it should take it all," Mayor Mitchell said.

The council awarded two contracts, one to Bahr Construction Co., Manitowoc, for $63,865 sewer construction in the area of the proposed new southeast senior high school, and the other to Wieseler Construction, Inc., Appleton, to do the season's paving for $232,815.

Earthquake Casualty Listing Shows No Fox Cities Names

A casualty list received today from Alaska's earthquake stricken area by the Outagamie County Red Cross chapter showed no names of former Fox Valley area residents.

Mrs. Kay Kirchberg, chapter executive secretary, said the latest list included the names and Alaskan address of all persons killed or injured in the disaster Friday.

She said the list is available for inspection at the chapter office, 110 E. North St., and said she checked the report against the file of inquiries made by county residents for information about Alaskan relatives and found there were none listed.

Village Man Fined For Resisting Arrest

COMBINED LOCKS — Stanley Gracyalny, 41, 1964 Kimberly Ave., Kimberly, pleaded guilty to a charge of resisting arrest and was fined $60 when arraigned before Wayne Hull, municipal justice.

Combined Locks police were called to the man's home after a disturbance and had to summon help for other village officers. A disorderly conduct charge against the man was dropped.

Kaukauna Man Fined On Conduct Charge

KAUKAUNA — Gerald Hauschel, 27, 314 Taylor St., Kaukauna, pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct when arraigned before Oscar T. Jahns, municipal justice, Monday, and was fined $100.

Hauschel was arrested at his home about 5 p.m. Saturday after police received a call he was beating his wife and children.

Appleton Officials Rule It Is Too Late To Honor Request by Alderman

BY WILLIAM C. CAREY

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Ald. Douglas A. Ogilvie (12th) surprised his council colleagues Wednesday night, requesting to have his name withdrawn from Tuesday's election ballot.

However, City Atty. Frederick E. Froehlich and City Clerk Elden Broehm ruled it was too late for Ogilvie's name to be taken off the ballot.

Ogilvie missed by one day the deadline set by state statute for withdrawing from an election race.

Ogilvie, an alderman for the past nine years, is president of Pierce Auto Body Works, Inc. In a letter to the council, Ogilvie cited the press of business as his reason for not wanting to seek re-election.

His opponent, John F. Ayers of 824 E. Hancock St., an insurance man, has been waging an intensive campaign in the ward.

This week he cited Ogilvie's council and committee meeting attendance record.

Ogilvie said if he should receive the most votes in Tuesday's election, he would not want to serve another two-year term.

Broehm explained that should

Ogilvie be the top vote-getter and did not want to serve, he would have to sign a document signifying his intent.

The aldermanic post would then be declared vacant and the council would elect Ogilvie's successor.

Broehm said the latest development would not preclude a write-in for anyone else in the ward who might want to seek the council position. "You can have write-in votes for every contest on the election ballot except the presidential primary," Broehm said.

Major Committees

During his years as an alderman, Ogilvie served on major council committees, including the personnel and public safety committees the past year.

Ogilvie recently was asked to serve as chairman of a committee with the Truck Body and Equipment Association of Washington, D. C.

He told the council his activity in the association would assist in the possible growth of his company in this community.

"With the increasing responsibility and time required of my job I find it necessary to withdraw my name from the ballot as incumbent candidate for alderman in the 12th Ward," Ogilvie wrote the council.

Thanked Constituents

"I feel that it is only fair to the fine people of the 12th Ward that more time be given to the solution, guidance and approval of the projects and problems existing in our area," he said.

Ogilvie thanked city officials and his constituents.

Ogilvie offered assistance to the elected alderman in his ward and the city's administration.

The reason he did not submit his letter sooner asking to be removed from the ballot, Ogilvie said, was because he had been out of the city and was not aware of the legal technicality that it had to be done at least seven days before the election.

Commend For Service

"I did not file an expense statement, believing this would automatically have my name taken off the ballot," Ogilvie said. Filing of pre and post-election expenses is procedural.

After the meeting, several aldermen and other officials commended Ogilvie for his several years service on the council.

Set High School Driver Classes

A special driver education class for students attending private high schools outside of Appleton will be offered this summer at the Appleton Vocational and Adult School.

Because these students will not be in Appleton to take the classroom instruction for high school students starting May 5, a special class for them will be started the week of June 8, AVS Director Carl Bertram said.

Bertram previously said the special class would be added if there was enough interest. Seventeen have registered.

Any student may register if his 16th birthday is not later than Oct. 28, Bertram said.

State traffic regulations require that students reach their 16th birthday within two months after the final day of the driving program.

The classroom instruction for high school students includes 15 two-hour sessions. They also must take six hours of driving observation and six hours of behind-the-wheel training. The three-week driving sessions start June 8, June 29, July 20 and Aug. 10. Students whose 16th birthday is late will have to take the fourth session, Bertram said.

Ogilvie Wants Name Taken Off City Ballot

$2.3 Million Bond Issue Gets Approval

Funds to Finance Junior High School, Fire Station Work

A $2,335,000 bond issue for school and fire station construction was approved Wednesday night by the Appleton council.

By unanimous vote, the council accepted the low interest bid of 3.08 per cent submitted earlier in the week by the First Boston Corp. of Chicago.

Ald. Harold Hannemann (10th), finance committee chairman, said "I think the city got a terrific interest rate in the sale of these corporate bonds. 'It indicates Appleton is in good financial shape.'"

With money now available, construction of the $1.8 million Albert Einstein Junior High School should get underway.

Contracts were awarded several weeks ago by the board of education.

Construction of the new No. 1 fire station at Atlantic and Drew streets is progressing rapidly, according to city officials.

In wading through a heavy agenda, the council:

—Completed purchase of properties from Zwicker Knitting Mills and Howard Campbell in connection with the Washington-Franklin Street project.

—Directed the city attorney to proceed with condemnation of three other properties needed for the street extension route, and hired appraisers to set values.

—Rejected an offer of James Meiers to sell the city a strip of land needed for constructing a sidewalk, and told the city attorney to proceed with condemnation.

—Decided to reject an offer of Du Chateau Real Estate to sell the city land for expanding Hoover Park, citing the cost.

Water Ordinances —Appointed City Atty. Frederick Froehlich and Works Director Robert W. Bues to a committee to work with the water commission in the reodification of ordinances relating to the operation of the water utility.

Rollerskaters Plan Hobo Affair Friday Fox Cities Youth for Christ will sponsor a "hobo" rollerskating party from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Friday in the Fox Valley Roller Rink, Neenah.

Prizes will be awarded for the most original and most shabby costumes and to the school with the largest group present.

Transfer Files Tibbets said the local office would transfer some of the remaining files into the newer used files, then get rid of the older files. Some of the files which would be available to the counties are still in Madison where they were sent to have the contents micro-filmed. The files will be returned to Appleton shortly.

County supervisors will be asked to vote on a new rental agreement with the tax office at its April meeting. The tax office has agreed to rent 9,630 square feet of space in the courthouse annex for a yearly rate of $24,000. The rate last year was $27,000, but the tax office occupied rooms in the third floor and basement, which has been taken over by the county. It is believed the county welfare department will move into the space vacated by the tax office.

Not Economical County Business Administrator Alvin Woehler said today that to offer the 1,000 plus cabinets for sale would not be economical. He cited other industries which have gone into open filing systems and have attempted to sell their old cabinets. "The cabinets have been 'stored,'" he said, "until the market is better."

seats of each of the 19 counties which have invested funds into the local office to determine if those agencies are interested in taking a proportionate share of the equipment.

He said if the counties' share of the investment they have in the local tax office is computed to a percentage, the percentage could be used to determine how many of the cabinets each county should get.

The used cabinets could then be sent to the counties with the cost of freight to be levied against the county. Menominee County has no investment in the tax office and therefore would not be eligible for cabinets.

Woehler said it should be understood all the counties should accept the equipment and not cash. He said it would be impractical to send equipment to half the counties who own it, then try to sell the other share and send the money.

Tibbets said he has about 1,000 single drawer filing cabinets which are no longer needed and an undetermined number of multi-drawer cabinets. He said some of the cabinets go back to the pre-World War I days when the tax office was being established.

State Tax Department to Dispose of 1,000 Used, Unneeded File Cabinets

State and county officials are not interested in flooding the filing cabinet market and are seeking other ways in which to dispose of over 1,000 no longer-needed cabinets.

The county's property and insurance committee met today with J. L. Tibbets, state income tax assessor who has the 1,000 used cabinets which he would like to dispose of.

The cabinets became available when some functions of the tax office were consolidated into automated processes in Madison. The local tax office is in the Outagamie County Courthouse and services some 20 counties.

He said if the counties' share of the investment they have in the local tax office is computed to a percentage, the percentage could be used to determine how many of the cabinets each county should get.

The used cabinets could then be sent to the counties with the cost of freight to be levied against the county. Menominee County has no investment in the tax office and therefore would not be eligible for cabinets.

Woehler said it should be understood all the counties should accept the equipment and not cash. He said it would be impractical to send equipment to half the counties who own it, then try to sell the other share and send the money.

Tibbets said he has about 1,000 single drawer filing cabinets which are no longer needed and an undetermined number of multi-drawer cabinets. He said some of the cabinets go back to the pre-World War I days when the tax office was being established.

State Tax Department to Dispose of 1,000 Used, Unneeded File Cabinets

State and county officials are not interested in flooding the filing cabinet market and are seeking other ways in which to dispose of over 1,000 no longer-needed cabinets.

The county's property and insurance committee met today with J. L. Tibbets, state income tax assessor who has the 1,000 used cabinets which he would like to dispose of.

The cabinets became available when some functions of the tax office were consolidated into automated processes in Madison. The local tax office is in the Outagamie County Courthouse and services some 20 counties.

County Business Administrator Alvin Woehler said today that to offer the 1,000 plus cabinets for sale would not be economical. He cited other industries which have gone into open filing systems and have attempted to sell their old cabinets. "The cabinets have been 'stored,'" he said, "until the market is better."

Teachers and Administrators Form Council

Group to Discuss School Problems With Superintendent

Twelve Appleton public school teachers and administrators have been appointed to a new administrative council organized to discuss school system problems with the superintendent.

Appointed to the council by Supt. of Schools Royce Kurtz were Jack Burroughs, Appleton High School biology teacher; Harold Hoecherl, AHS instrumental music teacher; Donald Pauer, Madison Junior High School mathematics teacher; Gene Britton, Wilson Junior High School guidance counselor; Miss Margaret O'Leary, Roosevelt Junior High School librarian, and Mrs. Margaret Doner, Edison School intermediate teacher.

Other Members

Miss Rose Wuest, Franklin School special teacher for the emotionally disturbed; Mrs. Mary Quilling, Franklin intermediate teacher; James Westphal, Huntley School mixed intermediate teacher; William Pickett, physical education coordinator; Kenneth McMahon, Morgan School special education teacher, and Charles Lynch, Johnston School principal.

A committee named by Kurtz selected the administrative council members, trying to get a cross-section of the school system staff. The same members will serve on the council for the next school year.

The council is not a decision-making group, but discusses problems of general concern throughout the school system and works with the administration in giving opinions on how they might be solved. The council has held one meeting.

"I am desirous of getting the thinking of some of the staff members on major problems or concerns of the Appleton public school system, so that I will have a broader view for administrative decisions or possible future recommendations to the school board," Kurtz said of the council.

"The system gets so big that you have to have personal contact with a group which you cannot have with every individual," he said.

Firms Showing Interest in Relocating

Ask Installation Of Water Main in Industrial Park

At least two industrial firms have shown more than casual interest in building new plants in Appleton's industrial park, it was learned today.

Recent property transactions in the city-owned park were the tip-off that at least one local industry plans to relocate and has preliminary plans for building a new plant there.

Since then, however, the city has been approached by other firms wishing to remain anonymous until a final decision has been made to build.

Water Feeder Line

That some industries are giving serious consideration to purchasing land from the city for new plants was indicated in a technically-worded item which passed the common council Wednesday night. It concerned a water feeder line for the industrial park.

The monthly report of the Appleton Water Commission to the council added to speculation that something is brewing concerning future development of the municipally-owned property.

The water commission is requesting authority from the Wisconsin Public Service Commission to install a new 12-inch feeder main to the industrial park area "to render water service to several industries planning to locate in the area."

The companies were not identified in the water commission's report.

Several matters were acted on by the council Wednesday night, including:

Scheduling of a public hearing to place the extension of W College Avenue on the city's official map, the route to be 150 feet wide from U.S. 41 to Mayflower Drive.

Distribution of copies of an extensive refuse collection report to all aldermen, accompanied by announcement of the street-sanitation committee will make recommendations for a bi-weekly rubbish collection.

Authorization to advertise for bids to repair the Lawe Street bridge.

2 Notices of Injury Received by Neenah

NEENAH — Two notices of injury, each asking $25,000 from the City of Neenah for alleged damages and personal injuries resulting from an accident Dec. 12, 1963, were referred to the city finance committee and the city's insurance carrier by the City Council Wednesday evening. The sum is the maximum under state law which may be claimed of a municipality on personal injuries.

Notices of injury, which according to City Atty. Charles Schaller are the first steps to be taken in a suit against a city, were submitted by Mrs. June Donovan, 504 Winnebago Heights Neenah, and John Dutcher, 807 E. Glendale Ave., Appleton.

Mrs. Donovan was the driver of the auto owned by Dutcher and in which Dutcher was a passenger which was involved in a collision with an auto driven by Carl L. Broughton, 304 E. Forest Ave., Neenah, at 11:58 a.m. Dec. 12, 1963, at the intersection of First Street and Forest Avenue.

College Union Group To Note 50th Year

Wisconsin School Associations Will Have Delegations at Indiana Conference

MADISON — The University of Wisconsin Memorial Union in Madison and other unions throughout the state will be represented among some 700 delegates at the golden anniversary conference of the Association of College Unions - International, April 19-22 at Indiana University, Bloomington.

Seven colleges, including the University of Wisconsin, founded the Association of College Unions in 1914. The association has grown to a membership of 550, including a number of unions from other countries.

The association estimates there are approximately 350 U.S. unions not presently members of the association, making a total, world-wide, including the 250 overseas, of at least 1,150 campus community centers in operation or in the active planning stage.

Other Wisconsin members of the association include Beloit College, Carroll College, Lawrence College, Marquette University, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Milwaukee School of Engineering, Ripon College, St. Norbert College, Stout State College and Wisconsin State Colleges in Eau Claire, La Crosse, Oshkosh, River Falls, Stevens Point, Superior and Whitewater.

Porter Butts director of the Wisconsin Union in Madison and a member of the association's executive committee, reports the theme of the conference will be "Last 50 Years and the Next."

Topics Discussed
More than 30 research papers, panel presentations and workshops will be presented. Subjects will include the academic community, planning and construction of unions, personnel training, food service facilities, unions abroad, the fine arts, games programs, the performing arts, foreign student programs, leadership training and the union outdoors.

Emphasizing the influence of the Union in cultural activity, the conference also will include an exhibit of 20th century American art, organized by the association and the Indiana University fine arts department. The exhibition, designed to show development of American art during the half century of the association's existence, will include 70 works by 50 of America's best-known artists.

WDUX Granted Permit to Hike Radio Power

WAUPACA — The Federal Communications Commission has granted a permit to WDUX Radio, 800 k.c., to increase its operating power from a non-directional 1,000 watts to a directional 5,000 watts.

The permit was received Wednesday, according to Tom Karavakis, vice president and general manager. Karavakis said the power increase would entail purchase of a new transmitter and erection of a second tower, about the same height as the present 265-foot antenna.

The FCC has ordered the station to beam its signal to the northwest and west with reduced signal coverage to the northeast and southwest, to avoid interfering with KXIC, Iowa City, Ia., and to avoid covering Green Bay, where it would compete with its sister station, WDUX.

FCC forbids competition between different stations under the same ownership.

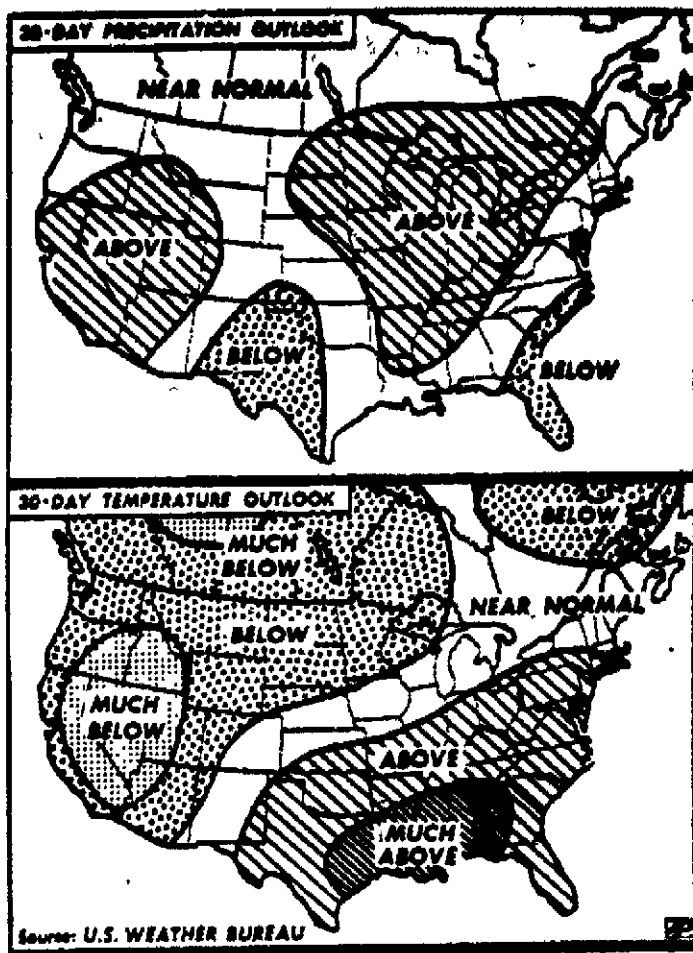

Karavakis said the power increase should be in operation before the end of summer.

WDUX is owned by Laird Broadcasting Inc., Green Bay.

ALL WOMEN LIKE TO ATTRACT MEN? TRUE OR FALSE?

False. Many women have little interest in attracting men. Many happily married women are quite content with what they have. Women who have challenging careers or absorbing talents may feel little interest in romance. Then there are the girls who have so much attention that it becomes boring, or have so little that they have quit trying. This still leaves many who want to attract men, but all women by no means do so.

The reasons most frequently given are all in the psychological and social realm: (1) The desire to appear grown-up and

Regents Approve New Titles for Faculty Members

Thirty-four faculty members at the nine Wisconsin state colleges have just joined 221 of their colleagues who have the two top badges of rank in their profession — the doctoral degree and the title of professor, the central office at Madison has announced.

The state college regents recently approved promotions for 153 of the 1,431 faculty members. Five moved from faculty assistant to instructor, 53 from instructor to assistant professor, 61 from assistant to associate professor and 34 from associate to full professor.

Promotions depend upon teaching ability, professional growth, general education service, advance degrees held and experience. Members of the colleges consult with department chairmen and deans, then submit recommendations for promotions to the board of regents.

New full professors at the state colleges are:

Eau Claire — Katharine Gill, Ormsby Harry, George Keem and James Taylor; La Crosse — Stanley Rolnick, William Vettes, Robert Voight and A. Vincent Weber; Oshkosh — Dorothy Allen, Lester Beherfall, Joseph B. Laine, Richard G. Netzel and Edward L. Schwartz; Platteville — Bernice Coffee, R. Clifford Coffee, Thomas B. Lundeen and Lester D. Vertain; River Falls — Robert Berg, Richard Darr and James Dollahon.

Stevens Point — Guy J. Gibson and Elwin W. Sigmund; Stout (Menomonie) — Marguerite C. Barra; Superior — Philip R. Brieske, R. Neil McKay and Sylvan F. Jaenke; Whitewater — Maxine Mann, Jasper Matthews, Gerard Mertens, Frank Palalay, Everett Refior, Stuart Rich, Charles Varney and Dale E. Brock.

2 Fishermen Rescued From Wolf River

FREMONT — Two Illinois anglers were plucked from the icy waters of the Wolf River by nearby fishermen after their boat overturned about 4 p.m. Tuesday.

William J. Draver, 42, and Guy Brabill, 55, both of Chicago, told rescuers their boat tipped when they simultaneously reached over the side of the craft for their minnow bucket.

A. M. Sader, Fremont, and Kerry and Kevin Van Kleek, both 13, Madison, were fishing nearby and witnessed the mishap. They instructed the floundering anglers to cling to their boat until they could get alongside.

They did not attempt to board Sader's boat, electing instead to hang onto the gunwales while Sader towed them to shore.

Sader and other anglers retrieved the Chicago pair's boat, oars and fishing gear.

CHEVY II by Chevrolet

How to get away from it all including the high cost of travel!

If you're looking for a way to get the whole family there and back on a small vacation budget, this is the station wagon that can do it.

You see, a Chevy II is one of the most inexpensive wagons you can own. It goes so many miles between gas stops you'll think we built in a spare tank. Garage stops, too, are far, far apart.

And you get 76 cu. ft. of cargo space for less money than you'd expect to pay for most sedans. Big enough to handle fat rowboats and tall fishing poles. Powerful enough to tote fully loaded trailers.

And all Chevy II's come with Chevrolet's money-saving, easy-care features. Like Body by Fisher, rust-resisting flush-and-dry rocker panels, battery-saving Delcotron generator, durable fully aluminized muffler and self-adjusting brakes.

Besides wagons, of course, there are Chevy II sedans and coupes. They come with a wide range of engines, including a thrifty Four. The Super Sport Coupe comes with bucket seats and either an extra-cost floor-mounted Powerglide or 4-speed transmission, along with door-to-door carpeting. So although Chevy II's are economical to buy and own, they certainly don't look it.

And now that it's Trade 'N' Travel Time at your Chevrolet dealer's, you'll never find a better time to look into Chevy II. Look under its hood. Slam its solid doors. Bounce on its thickly padded foam-cushioned seats. But above all else—try it on the highway. It'll give you a good run for your money.

4 College Grads From Fox Valley

DE PERE—Four Fox Valley area students were among 15 second-term graduates at St. Norbert College, as announced by the Rev. Vincent J. DeLeers, O. Praem., academic dean.

They are Dennis A. Depies, New Holstein, and George W. Holznecht Jr., Virginia Zueger and James C. Koleske, all of Appleton.

Koleske also was commissioned a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army following successful completion of the ROTC program at St. Norbert. He will serve in Korea following completion of the artillery basic officer's course at Ft. Sill, Okla.

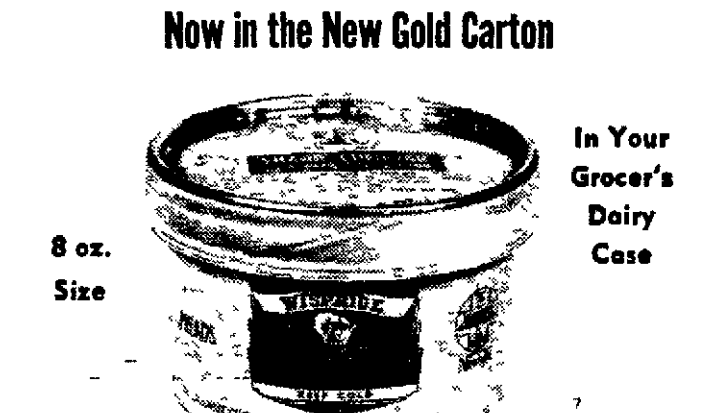

This is the first group of 1964 graduates at St. Norbert. The college went on a three-term calendar during the current school year, a departure from the traditional two-semester arrangement.

Fox Valley Income Boosted By Tax Cut, but Not on April 15

Revenue Report Indicates '63 Taxes Still to be High

Residents of Outagamie, Winnebago, Waupaca and Calumet counties will benefit from the recent reduction in tax rates—but not this April 15.

Just at a time when the record-breaking tax cut is showing up in their weekly paychecks, they must sit down and calculate their returns on the basis of last year's rates.

Their contribution to the federal coffers, therefore, will still be heavy. Washington is counting on its being greater than last year's, when personal tax returns from the four-county area came to approximately $54,838,000, including what was collected via withholding.

Revenue Report

The finding is based on the report of the Internal Revenue Service for the State of Wisconsin as a whole, together with unofficial figures on earnings and income groupings locally.

They show that Outagamie County residents contributed 2.46 per cent of the total collected in the state, which was $844,965,000. In the other three counties 1963 taxes, the per cent of the state total and the April, 1964 tax payments are:

Calumet County, $3,971,000, 0.47 per cent, $3,939,000—a decrease, Waupaca County, $5,915,000, 0.70 per cent, $5,980,000—an increase, and Winnebago County, $24,166,000, 2.86 per cent, $24,431,000—a sizable gain.

National Returns

The Government estimates that this year's returns from individuals throughout the country will be about $47.5 billion, which is slightly below last year's receipts.

In Outagamie County, on the strength of incomplete reports showing the change in personal income in 1963, the local contribution this year should be about $21,015,000.

dividual tax returns in the coming year will not only restore the amount lost by the cut but will produce $1 billion in additional revenue.

$463 Billion

It would mean that individual incomes, nationally, would have to rise from the 1963 figure of $463 billion to a new high of $462 billion.

Total income in Outagamie County will have to increase by 6.3 per cent this year if local taxpayers are to meet their share of this rise.

Hilbert Students to Vie for Government Day Positions

HILBERT—Results of a primary election for officers for County Government Day, April 21, were announced this week.

Those chosen for county clerk were Vivian Klotz (N), Gerry Hackbarth (F) and Mike Halbach (I).

Treasurer candidates will be Harriet Greve (N), Susan Behnke (F) and Elaine Gruber (I). Running for sheriff will be Gary Schombert (N), Ray Dietzen (F) and John Ritzke (I).

Coroner candidates will be Carolyn Klenhans (N), Donna Duchow (F) and Don Winkler (I).

ROTC Staff Member Retires After 25 Years in U.S. Army

WEST DE PERE — Army Master Sergeant Raymond L. Wisneski of the St. Norbert College ROTC department, officially retired from military service after over 25 years' active duty, in ceremonies on the West De Pere campus this week.

Wisneski served in Europe and the Pacific in World War II and was in Korea at the outbreak of hostilities there in 1950. He was assigned to St. Norbert in August, 1959.

A native of Stevens Point, Wisneski will remain in the Green Bay area, where he has accepted a position with the Wisconsin State Civil Service.

Polling Hours

Once Most Segregated

Birmingham Gives Up Slowly to Integration

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — well on its way to solving local problems at the local level and life in Birmingham for nearly 90 years—is grudgingly giving way.

A year ago, Birmingham was properly called the most segregated big city in America. About the only place Negroes had public equality with whites was on city buses.

Today, golf courses, parks and other city-owned facilities, three schools and downtown lunch counters are integrated. A biracial committee, set up by the city government, is working at resolving racial issues.

Underscoring the change was an Easter service in Municipal Stadium where 35,000 white and Negro worshippers sat together to hear evangelist Billy Graham. The crowd was the largest integrated audience ever assembled in Alabama. Not one incident marred the service.

Change Not Easy
The change didn't come easily. About 3,000 persons went to jail during racial demonstrations last spring. Seven Negroes were killed in bombings and racial strife accompanying the bombings. Nearly 100 policemen and firemen were injured trying to maintain order.

Now city fathers are optimistic. Glenn E. Taylor, director of the committee of 100, industry - seeking arm of the Birmingham area Chamber of Commerce, commented: "Our racial problems are behind us and Birmingham's image, at least industrially, is vastly improved over last year."

Mayor Albert Boutwell said, "I have never been so sure and confident that Birmingham is well on its way to solving local problems at the local level and making way for greater economic progress in the immediate future."

Leaders Discontent
There are still rumblings of discontent from Negro leaders. The Rev. Edward Gardner, first vice president of the Alabama Christian Movement for Human Rights, said he is not completely satisfied with the present situation but he doesn't think "we'll have anything this year like we did in 1963."

He criticized the group relations subcommittee of the biracial group. "Nothing has been done," he said. "It seems as if they can't seem to get a quorum. But at least the lines of communication are open to City Hall."

The Rev. Fred L. Shuttlesworth of Cincinnati, president of the organization, said Negroes would seek to consolidate the gains of 1963—"we will seek to make Birmingham a totally desegregated city."

UW Breaks Loss String With 5-3 Win Over Arizona

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) — The University of Wisconsin baseball team snapped its own losing streak and broke a long Arizona State victory string with a 5-3 triumph Wednesday.

It was the second time in three years the Badgers had ended an Arizona State winning streak. The Sun Devils had won 17 in a row up to Wednesday. In 1961, the Devils had won 21 straight before bowing to Wisconsin.

The Badgers, who had lost their last three starts, scored its deciding runs in the ninth on a double triple and sacrifice fly. Merrill Hyde socked a two-run homer from Arizona State in the same inning.

The Sun Devils, who took the three-game series 2-1, are now 18-3. Wisconsin is 3-4 in its 11-game Arizona tour.

Clintonville's Baseball Team Has 7 Lettermen

Seven lettermen starters on the 1963 Clintonville High School baseball squad will form the nucleus of the '64 unit currently working out under the watchful eye of Coach Werner Wernberg in the JHS gymnasium.

Veteran outfielders among the group are Gary Tveeten and Don Thompson. Bill Melzer, a senior, and juniors Bob Korb and Terry Dieck will be covering infield positions.

Melzer and Dieck, both all-around athletes, performed on the Trucker cage edition that reached the sectional level at Wausau in recent tournament competition.

Sam Hogan, another cager, will be in the starting lineup, but as yet Wernberg is undecided where to play him. Hogan can be used as a pitcher, infielder or outfielder.

Dan Hedtke will open behind the plate.

Wernberg is optimistic about the approaching season. He cited the weakest point as being a

Boxer Never Regained Consciousness

Funeral Services Slated Today for Lavorante

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Funeral services were scheduled today for Alejandro Lavorante, former Argentine heavyweight boxing champion who died more than a year and a half after collapsing at the end of a fight in Los Angeles.

Lavorante, 27, died Wednesday in Mendoza, never having fully regained consciousness. He was knocked out Sept. 21, 1962, by heavyweight Johnny Riggins and then underwent three delicate brain operations.

The 1962 bout was stopped in the sixth round after Riggins, who appeared to be trailing through the first four rounds, landed three solid rights in the fifth and sixth. Lavorante returned to his corner, then slumped off his stool unconscious.

An emergency brain operation was performed to remove a blood clot. A 3-by-5 inch section of his skull was removed in a second operation to relieve pressure but later was reinserted.

Lavorante remained in Los Angeles until May 4, 1963, when he was taken back to Argentina. He received therapeutic PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — The San Francisco Giants trimmed sails for the 1964 National League pennant chase Wednesday by releasing four more players.

The reduction cut the team's roster to 28 players, the number legally allowed when regular season play opens in San Francisco April 14.

Sent to the Giants' minor league training base at Casa Grande were pitcher Frank Linzy, catcher Dick Dietz and outfielders Arlo Engel and Dan Markowski.

St. Louis Trims Warriors in Playoff Game

San Francisco Wastes 20-Point Lead, Loses, 116-111

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — St. Louis finesse keeps the pressure on the muscular young San Francisco Warriors in the National Basketball Association's Western playoff finals and the pressure proved too much, at least in the opening game.

Leading by 20 points four minutes into the second quarter, the Warriors faltered and the heads-up play of such veterans as Richie Guerin, Cliff Hagan and Bob Pettit brought the Hawks a 116-111 victory.

So in the West the St. Louis club leads 1-0 and meets the Warriors at the Cow Palace in game No. 2 on Friday night. Boston leads Cincinnati 1-0 in the East with their second meeting tonight in Boston.

Wilt Chamberlain hit 16 points as the Warriors built a 33-20 first-quarter lead and they built it to a 47-27 advantage before the Hawks began surging back.

Hagan held the hot shooting hand with 13 second-quarter points as the Hawks narrowed the count to 58-54 at the half. Pettit took over the guarding of Chamberlain for the period and held him to five.

In the second half it was Guerin's turn and he scored 23 points, bringing his total to 32, second only to Chamberlain's 37. Fourteen of Richie's points came on free throws.

Hagan suffered a bruised knee in the second half and Len Wilkens turned an ankle, but both are expected back in action for the Hawks on Friday night.

Hagan, used sparingly in the second half, scored 23 for St. Louis. Center Zelmo Beaty hit for 24 including 18 in the second half.

8 Lettermen Form Nucleus Of '64 Team

By TERRY GALVIN
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

The initial test for Lawrence College's track candidates will occur Saturday afternoon in an intrasquad meet of freshman and varsity hopefuls in Alexander Gym.

The trials are slated to commence at 1:30 p.m. A favorable change in the weather could alter the site of the meet to Whiting Field. A trophy will be awarded to the top point winner of the meet.

Coach Gene Davis has a nucleus of eight lettermen for his 1964 edition. Co-captains Luke Groser and Dave Brainard head the list of veterans.

Other "L" winners are Joel Ungrodt, Dave Nero, Mike Gannett, Bob Bonewitz, Dick Engberg and Carl Celtham. Davis also has a pair of experienced and capable point-winners in Don Cass and Bob Pepper.

Freshmen and varsity candidates will be split into Blue and White units, with Brainard heading the Blue contingent and Groser captaining the White team.

The Viking trackmen will be seeking to equal or better the 1963 dual meet record of 5-2 and a fourth place Midwest Conference finish. Lawrence placed third in a quadrangular in '63.

Knox College will provide the opposition when the Vikings open their dual meet season here April 11.

After surveying a number of indoor workouts Coach Davis expressed, "We have fairly good balance, but we definitely are not as strong as last year's club."

Davis indicated that the '64 representation has no real strong or weak points and that the key to a successful season will rely on the performances and development of a better-than-average group of sophomores.

Brainard, Groser, Ungrodt and Engberg are the top point-producers back in harness. Brainard will be called on to carry the Blue and White colors in the dashes. Groser is a weight man, with Engberg a javelin specialist. The versatile Ungrodt, more renowned for his record-breaking scoring on the basketball floor, will be used in the hurdles, broad jump and high jump.

National League Holds 2-1 Edge in All Games Over AL Counterparts

Dodgers, Braves, Cubs Suppress 'Grapefruit' Foes
BY MIKE RATHET

Are the Milwaukee Braves the best team in the American League?

From the way the National League Braves have manhandled American League opposition you get that feeling — but it's just one facet of the supremacy the NL is establishing in inter-league battles with the AL during the exhibition baseball season.

Triggered by Hank Aaron's fifth homer, the Braves won their 10th consecutive game from American League opposition Wednesday, adding the Chicago White Sox to their list of victims, 5-3.

The Braves' list now includes every one of the seven AL teams training in Florida. In 11 games against AL opposition, only the Washington Senators have managed a victory against the Braves—they did it in the first game.

The Braves' victory was one of three by NL teams Wednesday on a five-game inter-league program, and lifted the National League's lead to 2-1 in games between the two circuits. National League teams have won 66 games, AL clubs 33.

Behind Milwaukee in the inter-league standings are the San Francisco Giants, 15-2, against AL opposition. National League domination is so complete that even the New York Mets, who are 6-2, have a better percentage in inter-league play than any American League team.

Best AL Record
The best AL record is held by the New York Yankees, who are 6-4. The White Sox are next at 5-5. No other AL team is above the .500 mark. By contrast, only two NL teams are under the break-even point—Philadelphia and the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers.

The poorest inter-league record belongs to the Boston Red Sox, who have won only one of a dozen games against NL clubs.

Besides Milwaukee, the Dodgers and Chicago Cubs beat American League opposition Wednesday while the Los Angeles Angels and Baltimore recorded victories against NL teams.

The Dodgers shelled Minnesota pitching for 15 hits—three by batting champion Tommy Davis—en route to a 7-3 victory protected by Larry Sherry's four scoreless innings of pitching. Merritt Ranew hit a decisive homer and Ron Santo stroked two doubles and a single in the Cubs' 8-7 decision over the Red Sox.

Batting Star
The Angels provided the day's batting star as outfielder Lee Thomas hit two homers—one a grand slam—and collected six runs batted in during a 10-7 thumping of the Giants. The Orioles did it with pitching as Robin Roberts and Harvey Haddix combined for a two-hitter in a 4-0 shut out of Pittsburgh.

Elsewhere, the other half of

Aaron Homers As Braves Trim Chisox

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A towering home run, sharp relief pitching and a perfect defense were all factors Wednesday as the Milwaukee Braves climbed back to the top of the pile in the exhibition standings.

The red-hot and rolling Braves polished off a Chicago White Sox "B" team 5-3 for Milwaukee's 10th victory in 11 games with American League clubs in the spring campaign.

The game did not count in the exhibition standings, but nonetheless the Braves replaced the San Francisco Giants as the top club. Milwaukee is 12-3, the Giants 17-5. Baltimore is the best in the American League with an 8-7 record.

The Braves climaxed their come-from-behind effort with a four-run fifth inning featured by Hank Aaron's fifth spring home run, a long, long drive over the wall in left center.

The only weak spot in the Braves presentation was the pitching of starter Denver Lemaster, who was the first Milwaukee hurler yanked from a game this year. He was lifted in the third after walking five and forcing over two runs.

Oshkosh native Billy Hoelt, acquired in the winter deal with San Francisco, allowed only a single hit and fanned three in his 1-3 innings of relief and took the victory. Knuckleballer Phil Niekro spread three harm-

Pay-TV World Series Would Benefit Players, Says Friend

BY JACK HAND

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP)—It is the day ever comes when baseball turns to pay television for the World Series and the All-Star game, the players' pension fund will benefit accordingly.

Bob Friend, National League player representative and workhorse of the Pittsburgh pitching staff, said the players had the word of the owners that their pension deal would be negotiated if pay television for the World Series ever becomes a reality.

"That would have to be a different type of contract," Friend said. "We would have to do a lot of talking. But that probably is a few years off at least."

60 Per Cent Cut

In the meantime the players are satisfied with the 60 per cent cut of the Series television money for their pension fund.

Friend, 33, is approaching his 14th year with the Pirates in the day ever comes when baseball turns to pay television for the World Series and the All-Star game, the players' pension fund will benefit accordingly.

"When I look back at my record, I consider 1963 was my best year," said Friend. "Not my won and lost record because it was 17-16 and I was 22-14 in 1968. But last year was my best for fewest hits given up and earned run average (2.34). Outside of two or three games, I were in every game that I pitched right up to the end."

"I thought I'd hit the 20-mark again when I had won 16 at the end of August. But our club went into a tailspin in September. It was a tough year for the three kids in the line-up who had to make adjustments. Now with that year under their belts, I think we will be an improved team."

Friend, winner of 142 games in the last 10 years, is a regular every-fourth-day starter. He usually turns in well over 250 innings a season. Only Warren Spahn, Robin Roberts and Billy Pierce have pitched more in-

Dempsey Sues Magazine for $3 Million

'Loaded Gloves' Story Libeled Him, Says Former Champ

NEW YORK (AP)—Jack Dempsey, former world heavyweight champion, charged in a $3 million suit Wednesday that he was libeled in an article published in Sports Illustrated last Jan. 13 which said he won the title from Jess Willard in 1919 by using "loaded gloves."

In an action directed against Time, Inc., publishers of Sports Illustrated, Dempsey said: "In truth and in fact my gloves were not 'loaded' when I defeated Jess Willard and won the heavyweight boxing championship of the world. I won the championship fairly and the published matter was, and is, false, malicious and defamatory."

Defends Willard
Dempsey defeated Willard at Toledo, Ohio, on July 4, 1919. In his complaint, Dempsey said that the cover of the disputed magazine bore the headline "Dempsey's gloves were loaded," and a sub-headline which read: "Doc Kearns' own story of the bloody Willard fight."

The story, the ex-heavyweight champion said, was titled "He didn't know the gloves were loaded," by Jack (Doc) Kearns with Oscar Fraley.

Kearns died in July, 1963. Dempsey said that the story charged falsely that his gloves "were improperly and surreptitiously weighted with plaster of paris when he fought Jess Willard."

As a result, the one-time heavyweight champion said, he had "suffered great injury to his good name, fame and reputation and injury to his present employment."

Pacing Himself Well

Larry Jackson Looms as Cubs' Opening-Day Starting Pitcher

MESA, Ariz. (AP) — Larry Jackson, who has averaged almost 15 victories a year for seven successive major league seasons, probably will be the Chicago Cubs' opening-day pitcher at Pittsburgh April 14.

The 32-year-old right-hander has paced himself well in training.

After four so-so efforts this spring, Jackson bore down impressively against the Cleveland Indians Tuesday, yielding only four hits in seven scoreless innings.

Last year, his first with the Cubs, Jackson posted a 14-18 record, his first losing season since 1955 when he broke in with the Cardinals with 9-14.

Only 29 runs But in those 18 losses, Jackson's Cub mates scored only 29 runs. The 6-foot-2, 190-pound pitcher was shut out four times and dropped eight one-run decisions.

"I may get two more starts at least before the season opens, and I feel like I'm right on schedule," said Jackson, who was a key man in a six-player swap with the St. Louis Cardinals in October of 1962.

"Last spring, I might have been a little farther along, but I rushed myself more because I was coming to a new club and I wanted to prove I was ready."

"Maybe I reached my peak early because I lost seven in a row after mid-season, and I usually finish strong."

Jackson's best percentage year was 1957 with a 15-9 Cardinal record, but his winningest season was 1960 when he finished 18-13. Hit by a bat in 1961 spring training, Jackson suffered a broken jaw. He missed part of that season, but still came up with a 14-11 record for St. Louis.

Records Broken In Badger Track Win Over Murray

MURRAY, Ky. (AP)—Seven Cutchin Stadium track records were established Wednesday by the University of Wisconsin as it won 11 of 16 events in defeating Murray College 86-54.

Badger runner Mike Manley and field standout Don Hendrickson each picked up a pair of stadium marks. Badger teammates Elzie Higginbottom, Barney Peterson and Brian Bergemann grabbed the others.

They won the 440-yard run, 47.7; 880-yard run, 1:52.5; and pole vault, 14-9, respectively. Manley set records in the mile, 4:16.4, and two-mile, 9:20.8, while Hendrickson set marks in the shot put, 55-3 1/2, and the discus, 165-1.

Olympic Trials For Cagers to Start Today

12 Regulars, Six Alternates to be Picked for Squad

NEW YORK (AP) — Four prominent college basketball coaches come to town today to handle the kind of teams every coach dreams about—each with the frustrating knowledge that he can't win.

The coaches are John Wooden of UCLA's national champion team; Amory (Slat) Gill, who is retiring as Oregon State coach; Jack Gardner of Utah, and John McLendon of Kentucky State.

They'll direct the four all-star college teams—three from the National Collegiate A.A. and one from the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics—in the Olympic tryouts on the St. John's University court today. Other teams in the three-day session are two all-star squads picked from last week's Amateur Athletic Union championships and two from the Armed Forces.

Six from UCLA

The college squads include most of the past season's All-America and Little All-America selections, six members of the UCLA squad and the tallest and most-talented college players from every sector. The NAIA squad represents smaller colleges, but physically its just as big as any of the others.

The college teams will be playing under unfamiliar rules, which probably won't handicap them much. The big differences are the angled foul lanes, spreading 19 feet at the end line, and the international ball, which is a little heavier and harder to control than the American ball.

The NCAA squads have played a couple of exhibitions during the past week, but there'll be little time for practice as units under the different conditions.

So why can't anyone win? Well, when the three-day session is over, the U.S. Olympic Basketball Committee and Hank Iba of Oklahoma State, the Olympic coach, can pick just 18 men from the whole group. The final Olympic squad will consist of 12 regulars and six alternates and team results won't mean much in the selections.

The program calls for each team to play three times.

Here is how the college players will be grouped:

NCAA Whites: Manny Newsome, Western Michigan; Steve Thomas, Xavier; Doug Moon, Utah; Ray Carney, Missouri; Billy Cunningham, North Carolina; Fred Hetzel, Davidson; Joe Caldwell, Arizona State; Jim Davis, Georgetown; Cotton Nash, Kentucky; Les Hunter, Chicago Loyola; Cazzie Russell, Michigan Coach-Jack Gardner, Utah.

NCAA Reds: Wally Jones, Villanova; Howard Komke, Bowling Green; Jeff Mullins, Duke; Dave Stallworth, Wichita State; Bill Bradley, Princeton; Willie Murrell, Kansas State; Rick Barry, Miami; Wayne Estes, Utah State; Ray Carey, Missouri; John Thompson, Providence; Hal Counts, Oregon State; Jim Barnes, Texas Western; Coach-Slat Gill, Oregon State.

NCAA Blues: Walt Hazzard, Ohio Goodrich; Kenny Washington, Jack Hirsch; Fred Slaughter and Doug McIntosh, UCLA; Bennie Lenox, Texas A&M; Jerry Sloan, Evansville; Jim Davis, Colorado; Ollie Johnson, San Francisco; Barry Kramer, NYU; Coach-John Wooden, UCLA.

NAIA All-Stars: Willis Reed and Wilbert Frazier, Grambling; Lucious Jackson and Mitchell Edwards, Pan American; Pat Caldwell and Ralph Telfen, Rockhurst; Jesse Branson, Elon; Lou Skurcenski, Westminster, Pa.; Doug Gloyner, Emporia State; Cecil Tuttle, Georgetown, Ky.; Jerry Moore, Morris Harvey; Willie Shaw, Lane, Coach-John McLendon, Kentucky State.

Pete Elliott Talks At Auburndale Athletic Fete

WAUSAU (AP)—Pete Elliott, the head football coach at the University of Illinois, has been calling in central Wisconsin, the stamping grounds of one of the state's top high school athletes.

One of the college coaches' top targets this recruiting season is Mickey Vande Hey, the baseball, basketball, football and track star at Auburndale High School.

The 6-foot-2 Vande Hey, who goes over 200 pounds, has pitched several no-hit baseball games, and in basketball scored 63 points in one game in the past season. The husky senior reportedly is interested in a professional baseball career after college.

Elliott, who spoke at sports night affair in the Town of Auburndale said, "We would be pleased to have Mickey at Illinois. But just what he is going to do, only he can say."

On other subjects, Elliott said the rule change that will bring the return of two-platoon football will not make much difference at Illinois as it seeks to repeat as Big Ten champion next season. He said he would continue to prepare his players to go both ways while grooming a few offensive and defensive specialists.

KAC to Air Plans For Softball Tourney

KAUKAUNA — Plans for the annual softball tournament and final arrangements for the bowling tournament will be discussed at a meeting of the Kaukauna Athletic Club at 7 p.m. today in the Golden Age card room in the municipal building.

An effort will also be made to secure a manager for the Klubber baseball team.

It took an all-out effort by the Kimberly team to offset the determined play of two great veterans of 'Y' tournament action — Joe Meuwesen and Cully Kudhl — who posted the younger champs with shots from all over the court. Joe's 23 points paced the Printers while Cully collected 15 for the second high honors. Both men have appeared in 'Y' tournaments for the last 15 years.

The teams traded punch for punch throughout the first half which closed with the titleholders up by four points, 36-32. The margin held up through the third quarter and Kimberly stayed out in front until Tom Lamorande swished a free throw to knot it up 57-all. Reliance pulled ahead briefly at the 2-minute mark in the final period and held a 71-69 edge when Meuwesen popped two free throws with 28 seconds on the clock.

Jim Peerenboom dropped two free throws in the last eight seconds to deadlock the game, 71-71, at the final buzzer. Jim repeated the act in the last 10 seconds of the overtime to clinch the game for the champs. Nettesheim counted on a hook shot and Lemorande knocked in a jumper from the circle for the Printer points in the extra session.

Jim Maahs, a tough shooting guard, rallied the Kimberly team throughout the game with nine baskets and five free throws for 23 points and Jim Peerenboom contributed 19 points, including those valuable last-minute free throws.

Schneider's superior height and shooting were too much for Liebmann the senior Premontre stars held up well through the first half and slowed their bigger and older opponents to a 4-point halftime margin, 27-23.

Lance Olson, Wayne Monson and Co. began to roll in the third quarter and it was no contest after that. The ex-Cadets were paced by the diminutive Mike Feller, who counted 29 points to tie Olson for game point laurels. Monson finished 9th 15.

KIMBERLY 77 — J. Peerenboom 7-5-2; Maahs 9-5-4; T. Peerenboom 5-0-3; Never 6-1-2; Schmidt 3-0-2; Van Grinsven 3-0-3; 31-11-6 16-20-14-6-7-7.

Bullets' Shue Retires as NBA Player

BALTIMORE (AP) — Gene Shue, at one time the highest-scoring guard in the National Basketball Association, announced today his retirement from professional basketball.

Shue, only native Baltimorean ever to play in the NBA, wound up his 10-year career in his home town. The Baltimore Bullets acquired Shue early this season along with center Paul Hogue in a deal which sent center Billy McGill to the New York Knickerbockers.

Shue started his career at the University of Maryland.

The New $175,000 Kimberly Savings and Loan Building has been completed and an open house is scheduled for Sunday. The building, completely modern in design, will feature the newest type of electronic equipment to speed up customer service and aid in accuracy. Work on the structure was finished in November, 1963. ## Open House to Unveil $175,000 Kimberly Savings, Loan Building

KIMBERLY — Open house at the new $175,000 Kimberly Savings and Loan building will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday with employees and officers to be on hand to serve as guides.

Work on the building started in the fall of 1963 and was completed in November, 1963. General contractor was Dick Ouden-hoven while Wilburn C. McCormick, architect with the Bank Building Corp., St. Louis, designed the structure.

Located at Kimberly Avenue and John Street, the one-story structure is 44 by 80 feet and offers approximately 7,300 square feet of floor space, including a fully operational basement. Of contemporary design, the association's new quarters features two drive-up units, off street parking for 26 cars and a lounge for customers.

Exterior design is highly contemporary and utilizes dramatic combinations of buff brick, glass, black anodized aluminum, white concrete folded plate roof and a black granite base around the building with attractive inset planter unit.

Inside Features

Included in the first floor area, where functional styling complements exterior design, are the public lobby, six teller areas, bookkeeping department, book vault, three private offices, two vestibules and an officers' area. Interior decor features a unique indirect cove lighting effect in the roof, portions of exposed brick, a decorative screen wall separating the tellers from the bookkeeping department, carpeting in the lobby with a removable strip directly in front of the teller stations and oil finish walnut furniture.

Future Expansion

The teller stations, of walnut and laminated plastic with marble ledges, invite customer transactions. Provisions have been made for two additional teller stations. Future expansion can be accommodated to the west of the building. The structure is completely air conditioned and serviced with gas heat.

The basement of the building can be utilized as a community room with a relatively large open hall offsetting a small kitchenette.

The newest type of electronic equipment has been incorporated into the building to speed up window service for members. Electronic posting equipment also has been added to aid in the ultimate in accuracy.

Zoelk Slams 275 Game in Kimberly Loop

KIMBERLY — Jim Zoelk slammed a 275 singleton and a 612 series to pace the National Bowling League at Jerry's Lanes. In registering the high game, Zoelk pounded nine strikes in a row and spared in the last frame.

Other honor scores were hit by Jerome Gaffney, 580; Charles Last, 570; Bill Behling, 569; Norb Van Dyke, 225, 565; Paul Albers, 225, 563; Jerry Thiel, 564; Ed Block, 562; Cleborne Vander Velden, 560; Len Kunstman, 558, and Jack Van Hamman, 555.

Murtaugh Banks Title Hopes on Tight Defense

Tells Club That Few Positions Are Set; Needs Hitters

BY JACK HAND

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP)—Danny Murtaugh counts on improved hitting by Bob Bailey and Donn Clendenon and a tighter defense to back up his fine Pittsburgh pitching staff after the nightmare year of 1963.

"I told the boys there are very few set positions on an eighth-place club," Murtaugh said.

Murtaugh is doing his best to forget last year, when the Pirates sprinted from the gate, stumbled at a 500 pace through the dog days and fainted dead away in September. At the end of the only National League clubs they had beaten were Houston and the New York Mets.

It was an embarrassing year for Joe Brown, the general manager, who traded away Dick Groat, 319 at St. Louis, and Dick Stuart, 42 homers and 118 RBIs at Boston. The men who took their jobs were Bailey, 228, and Clendenon, 275 and 136 strikeouts, tying the league record.

Bailey, the $125,000 bonus baby, has been hammering the ball in spring training with Gene Freese and rookie Gene Alley challenging for his third base job.

Murtaugh has spent considerable time with Clendenon, a lanky free swinger, trying to cut down on the strikeouts.

"If he can knock off 50 or 60 strikeouts, he can hit .300," said Murtaugh.

Capable Hands

Second base is in the capable hands of Bill Mazeroski and Dick Shofield is the shortstop.

Bill Virdon in center and Roberto Clemente in right are outfield fixtures Willie Stargell is the likely left fielder because, as Murtaugh said, "he is the one player with a potential of 20 or 25 home runs."

Jim Pagliaroni is the leading candidate for the No. 1 catching job. Murtaugh wants to use Smokey Burgess once or twice a week and have the benefit of his bat on the bench for pinch hitting.

Jim Gibbon, Bob Veale, Bob Friend, Don Cardwell and Don Schwall are the starters with Elroy Face and Al McBean in the bullpen. Tommie Sisk, dependable as the long relief man, may move into the rotation. Earl Francis is battling to come back from an off year.

Vern Law is getting every chance to make the club. The Deacon was placed on the voluntarily retired list last fall but has been reactivated after showing Murtaugh that his arm is loose.

The Pirates shape up as a good-pitch, no-power club with questionable defense. They probably won't be in the pennant race but they have too many good ball players to be eighth again.

Governor Signs CC Order Restricting Use of Gill Nets

MADISON (AP)—A sign of spring was supplied Wednesday by the office of Gov. John W. Reynolds.

The executive office said the governor had signed a Conservation Commission order setting a restriction on the use of gill nets to take rough fish from Wisconsin boundary waters of the Mississippi River and Lake Pepin.

The order bans nets within 300 feet of the mouths of rivers and streams emptying into the boundary water to prevent game fish from being trapped as they move to or from spawning grounds.

Jingo Hopes for More Symphony Concerts

Lawrence Orchestra in Sunday Concert; To Appear at Waupaca Art Festival

BY JINGO

When historians look back at the 1963-1964 community music season they may very well call it the year of the symphony. And Jingo hopes they will be able to append the footnote that this season was the beginning of a long tradition of symphony orchestra concerts in the area.

At 8:15 p.m. Sunday the Lawrence College Symphony will perform its second concert of the season at the Lawrence Chapel. It will play once more in Appleton during the traditional commencement period.

However, the orchestra won't be idle until then. On April 12, the orchestra will travel to Waupaca for a concert during that city's ambitious Art Festival Week that starts this week-end with an area art show.

Lawrence also added to the symphonic scene during the season by introducing its newly organized Lawrence Chamber Orchestra.

The chamber orchestra also played an important part in the professional season with Lawrence giving stage room to the vaunted Moscow Chamber Orchestra and St. Norbert importing for our delectation the Zurich Chamber Orchestra.

However, the big news, of course, was the path beaten to our doors by the big orchestras, three were scheduled and two appeared. The "one that got away" was the St. Louis orchestra that had the misfortune — that is — of being scheduled to play at Oshkosh on the black evening of Nov. 12.

Those that did appear were the superb Indianapolis Symphony with its modern-music spiced program at Menasha High School and the fine, young Milwaukee Symphony and its recent program at Oshkosh.

At the end of the 1962-63 season, Appleton was honored with the appearance of the Kansas City Symphony.

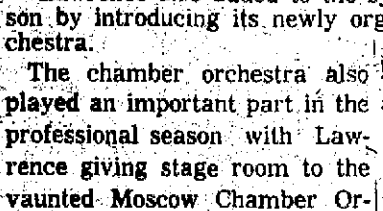

Local symphony interest continues to run high as well. In addition to the Lawrence organization, the Oshkosh Symphony enjoyed a good season that will be climaxed on April 12 with its spring concert at the Civic Auditorium.

Of course, the Green Bay Symphony and the orchestral activities at Fish Creek during the summer continue to be the basis of local interest and enjoyment.

Chamber music continued to increase its "draw" during the season and Jingo continues to be hopeful that in the not too distant future the Fox Cities will be able to put together at least a community chamber orchestra that could very well develop into a full symphony.

Next music season hasn't developed far enough to know if the year of the symphony will be stretched, but at least one big attraction will appear.

The Neenah-Menasha Community Series has booked the prestigious San Francisco Ballet for its '64-65 season. With a start like that, who can tell what heights the season will reach? It's good to live in the Fox Cities!

Houston Tries To Help Lady Con Victim

BY TV SCOUT

6:30-7:30 (Channel 4-5)—Temple Houston, in its final new show, has an episode made before it decided to be a comedy series. Paula Raymond stars as a respected lady who has fallen for the blandishments of a crook and given him a large sum of money. But she doesn't want to prosecute.

7-8 (Channel 2)—Rawhide has a half-hearted comedy with very predictable situations, but it has the lovely Lola Albright as a one-time dance hall queen whose lady-like veneer as the banker's wife, occasionally erodes away. Especially when she learns hubby Allyn Joslyn gets Gill Favor. (Eric Fleming) in a financial fix.

7:30-8 (Channel 11)—My Three Sons has a pleasant episode all about Bub's efforts to save a tree from the woodman's ax.

7:30-8:30 (Channel 4-5)—It's good to see Anne Baxter in one of her rare television appearances, but she is so awash in tears in Dr. Kildare that her role could have been played in a wet suit. She is a nobly deranged woman who has nursed her husband and son through long, unspecified illnesses. Now, she says, if she had it to do over, she would give each one of them a day to remember.

8-9 (Channel 2)—The murder victim on Perry Mason is a drama critic, and TV Scout carefully refrains from making any comment on that! "The Case of the Simple Simon" is set against an interesting background — a touring company of Shakespearean players.

8:30-9 (Channel 4-5)—Hazel befriends a bum and sends him off to work for the helpless Johnsons, where he proves a great asset. (Color)

8:30-9:30 (Channel 11)—The Jimmy Dean Show has a pleasant outing, with Eydie Gorme, Don Adams, Jim Reeves, Rowell and a beautiful set.

9-10 (Channel 2)—The Nurses doesn't quite know what it's trying to prove, but never gets there anyway. Diana Lynn, with a Southern accent, is a new student nurse. Her hoity-toity airs offend her colleagues so, in her loneliness, she takes up with a tortured psychiatric patient (William Prince).

9-10 (Channel 4-5)—The camera work steals the show in "Once Upon a Savage Night" on Kraft Suspense Theater. It's a pilot for a series about the work of Tri-State Police. The regulars would be Charles McGraw, Robert Ridgely and Ted Knight. Guests are Philip Abbott as a

Minding Your Business

By Cyrus Barrett, Jr.

MIND YOUR 'UNLESSSES' IF YOU WANT TO CAPTURE DOLLARS WITH AN IDEA

DEAR CY: How does a woman get rid of an idea at a profit, which could benefit only one company? The idea I have is in the form of a slogan, such as used by major companies. I have already written the firm which could use my slogan. They advise me that their advertising is handled by several advertising agencies with whom they have contracts. "The agencies are paid to provide any and all creative advertising ideas used" is what I was told. Meanwhile, I sit on a big outside brain waves from the idea that happens to have a tremendous potential for this company.

AMY BLEE HURST

DEAR AMY: Let's unleash some "unless-esses." Unless you can patent, copyright, or trade mark your idea. Unless you can promote it yourself. Unless you can capture the market before competition does. Unless you can do these things, you are in no woman's land for cashing in on an idea. Large companies shun told. Meanwhile, I sit on a big outside brain waves from the public, due to the nuisance-law suits they can transport. And, with large companies, most sound ideas have been thought of by corporate personnel or their advertising agencies. Not all, but most. So don't burn up time, trying to wring dollars out of an idea only one firm could use. Unless that firm is you or yours.

DEAR CY: I pinned your column on underpricing handcrafts to my husband's pajama top with the note: "Sleep on this." The point was too well made. He got stuck in the chest by the pin. After reading the article, he bawled, "And just what does this dumb wise guy suggest I charge?" All I could answer was, "I don't know."

MRS. JUDY PRINZ

DEAR JUDY: Thanks for those kind words. Glad my column appears in newspapers instead of pinned to husbands. Tell your spouse to price his handcraft work at three times the cost of materials, plus increases for time and demand. This time, say it. Don't pin it!

DEAR CY: There is a lot of luck involved in becoming a dentist, and it is running against my husband who is a student. The clinic of his dental school makes appointments with patients for students. After doing certain work

Long Business Upturn Flashes Boom Signals

BY SYLVIA PORTER

Our 36-month-old business upturn is starting to flash signals of turning into a boom.

The key evidence is in the price trend — in the widely scattered increases being posted in the prices of a wide range of commodities, basic materials, industrial materials and manufactured goods, both durable and non-durable.

The price increases aren't seriously disturbing — yet. They on them, students get credits. If patients don't show up, the student is blanked on the credit. Without enough work credits, it is impossible to pass. Yesterday a game warden came into the clinic and insisted my husband clean his lower teeth only. The clinic refused to take the man on this basis, and my husband lost the credit. This game warden claimed he met the public a lot and was afraid to lose upper tooth would be knocked out, ruining his appearance.

STUDENTS WIFE

DEAR STUDENT'S WIFE: Some people think the appearance of a game warden is ruinous anytime. And, if your spouse had knocked out that upstairs tooth, the man's career might have suffered. With the wind whistling through his uppers, a game warden can't be much of a poacher stalker. Your husband is lucky!

CY

are mostly small, and so they neither arouse much attention nor do they give President Johnson a basis for talking the public interest. Inflation is still a threat, not a reality.

It well may be that consumer and business spending, accelerated by the great tax cuts of 1964, will be orderly and not add to inflation pressures. It's possible that this year's wage settlements will be within reasonable limits and they'll not boost labor costs to the point where corporations will face the alternatives of either increasing prices or accepting a squeeze on profits.

Inflation Danger

But let's not kid ourselves. For the first time in this decade of the 1960s, inflation is a danger we must not shrug off.

In his January Economic Message, Johnson said, "I shall keep a close watch on price and wage developments, with the aid of an early warning system which is being set up in the appropriate agencies."

Assuming the early warning system is operating, that is what it is showing.

Wholesale prices in manufacturing industries are in a general advance. A sensitive government index shows that 78 per cent of wholesale prices in 23 manufacturing industries are now rising. At the start of last year only 24 per cent were rising; as recently as last August only 52 per cent were rising. The increases are virtually across-the-board in durable goods, are taking place in most non-durable goods as well.

Prices of basic materials and commodities are rising at home and abroad, and these many of the necessities are essential to the goods we manufacture. The increases naturally put upward pressure on production costs. The range is wide in raw materials: steel, aluminum, copper, lead, zinc, rubber, chemicals, food, etc.

The consumer price index is only moderately higher than a year ago, but if the above price increases stick and spread, consumer prices are sure to be affected. Small though most of the price boosts are, they are widely scattered, and as one expert emphasizes, "This usually means bigger things to come."

On top of this is the mounting probability of a big wage hike in the automobile industry which could set a new pattern for the country. What happens in the auto wage negotiations this year will have ramifications going far beyond the industry. It will affect hundreds of other industries located hundreds of miles away from Michigan.

On top of this, too, is the free spending mood of the public. Not in years have consumers indicated so much confidence in the economy's future. Not since the boom of 1955-56 have they shown so much optimism—and they have the incomes and the credit to translate enthusiasm into buying in the marketplace.

Industry Outlook

Add also the step-up in industry's spending for new plants and equipment, officially projected at 10 per cent for 1964. A rise of 10 per cent is provocatively close to boom proportions in this type of spending, and the rise would be bigger than the government estimates.

One reason the current business upturn has lasted 36 months to date is because it has been solid and non-inflationary, and

Thursday, April 2, 1964 Appleton Post-Crescent B7E

It remains non-inflationary because it could continue indefinitely. But if it takes on the characteristics of an inflationary boom, it will force counteractions that could lead to the boom's end. Booms carry within them the seeds of their own destruction. The early warning system is signaling now that inflation is only a threat. Our new challenge is to keep it only a threat. (Copyright 1964)

Goulart Ruled Ousted As President of Brazil

Vows Fight Until Death While Congress Installs Mazzilli as His Successor

BY FRANK BRUTTO
RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—Congress today declared President Joao Goulart was ousted from office by a two-day military rebellion, and installed his successor. But from a haven in southern Brazil, Goulart declared he still is president and will "fight to the death."

cant. Mazzilli, next in line because Brazil has no vice president, took the oath of office at 3:30 a.m.

The revolutionary generals met in Rio and announced that calm reigned throughout the country.

Mazzilli planned to come to Rio this afternoon for a series of political contacts to form a new government.

The people of Rio poured spontaneously into the streets in celebration of the 48-hour revolution, whose leaders accused the president of seeking to turn Latin America's largest country into another Cuba.

As Goulart made his dash south, the Navy Ministry announced Mazzilli's appointment.

Johnson Firm On Civil Rights

Frowns on Efforts To Weaken Measure Through Changes

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson apparently is giving his legislative lieutenants little room to maneuver toward any compromise that might insure Senate passage of the civil rights bill.

The President was described by close associates today as being hard-rock firm against any changes in the House-passed measure. They said he has maintained this attitude in private strategy conferences as well as in his public statements.

Long Sessions Ahead
Johnson, an expert on how to get things done in the Senate, is said to have told the bill's managers they should plan for eventual around-the-clock sessions in an attempt to break a Southern filibuster.

The President reportedly has little hope that Dixie opponents will ever permit passage of the legislation without the invoking of the cloture rule. This means that two-thirds of those voting would have to approve applying a debate limitation.

Therein lies the dilemma of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., floor manager for the bill, and the Democrats and Republicans who are backing his efforts to bring it to a vote.

Needs Dirksen's Help
There is no practical way — and Humphrey is the first to admit it — of getting the necessary two-thirds vote unless Sen. Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois is willing to go along.

Dirksen wants some changes in vital sections of the bill. He has said he will propose about a dozen amendments to the provision dealing with fair employment practices but has no wish to "emasculate" it.

Commission Will Plan Rehabilitation Of Quake Districts

President Johnson to Ask $50 Million Emergency Aid

BY BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson has named a special commission to plan rehabilitation of the earthquake-ravaged Alaskan economy and he will ask Congress for $50 million for emergency relief.

Both decisions were announced Wednesday by the White House after Johnson conferred with Alaska's senators, Democrats E. L. Bartlett and Ernest Gruening, and by telephone with William A. Egan, governor of the stricken state.

The $50-million appropriation is generally viewed as a first-step measure to help rebuild vital roads, bridges, utilities and other publicly owned facilities. To the three Alaskans it is a bare one-tenth of the federal aid that will be needed to restore their state's economy.

$500 Million Needed

At least $500 million is required to cope with "the worst disaster that has ever struck any state," Gruening declared. In Anchorage, Egan said outright grants of at least that much will be needed to reconstruct housing, business and industrial facilities. "We can rebuild in no other way," he said.

Usually federal funds are available only for clearing debris and rehabilitating public buildings and highways, but Bartlett and Gruening hinted that the President may request congressional authority to provide direct financial assistance to private industry.

To head the 12-man special commission, Johnson named Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M. One of its tasks presumably will be to weigh proposals for helping to rebuild the fishing and canning industries on which the Alaskan economy was based.

The secretaries of defense, interior, labor, agriculture, commerce and welfare will serve on the panel—the Federal Reconstruction and Development Planning Commission for Alaska—along with Edward A. McDermott of the Office of Emergency Planning, the Federal Housing Administrator, the Federal Aviation Administrator, the Federal Power Commission chairman and the chief of the Small Business Administration.

The country doctor-turned politician took the step as another in a series of measures which, since his election in 1957 for a six-year term, have given him an iron rule over this poverty-stricken Caribbean nation of 4 million people.

Top officers of his army assembled at the National Palace for the ceremony Wednesday. Information Minister Paul Blanchet said Duvalier was acting in response to public demonstrations urging him to rule for life and to the expressed wish of the officers to take a new oath to him.

Duvalier has bested rebels in time title and the officers' oath and told them he considered them to be his army.

On and on the day when the pent-up wrath of the Cuban people explodes, our action or inaction may make the difference between victory or defeat."

Without mentioning Chairman J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Dodd took sharp issue with Fulbright's Senate speech last week urging a change in Cuban policy.

Fulbright suggested that Fidel Castro's Cuba should be looked upon as "a distasteful nuisance but not an intolerable danger."

While Fulbright said Castro communism posed a "grave threat" to other Latin-American nations, he contended this could be dealt with by prompt and vigorous use of antiaggression machinery of the Organization of American States.

Dodd described as a "fallacy of the do-nothing policy" any argument that "the Castro regime, while admittedly a nuisance, does not pose any mortal threat to our security."

Haiti's Chief Gives Himself Lifetime Job

Duvalier Responds To Public Demand, Minister Says

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—Dr. Francois Duvalier has taken the title of lifetime president onto his tight dictatorship over Haiti.

The country doctor-turned politician took the step as another in a series of measures which, since his election in 1957 for a six-year term, have given him an iron rule over this poverty-stricken Caribbean nation of 4 million people.

Today a broadcast heard in Argentina quoted the mayor of Porto Alegre as saying Goulart has decided not to resist, because he wanted to avoid bloodshed.

An Argentine Foreign Ministry official said he had word that Goulart would seek asylum in Rio de Janeiro.

There, in his home state of Rio Grande do Sul, he claimed support of the strong 3rd Army. A statement read in his name over Porto Alegre radio declared: "The hour of mobilization, the hour of vigilance is here."

Denies He's Ousted
The broadcast declared Goulart still is president and would put down the rebellion with powerful military support. It insisted that Goulart still is in Brazil, but did not say he was in Porto Alegre.

His statement called on the people to organize to defend democracy, and urged them to come to Porto Alegre or to go to their city halls and demonstrate.

Radio Liberty, in the industrial city of Sao Paulo, an anti-Goulart stronghold, said there were unconfirmed reports Goulart had fled to Asuncion, Paraguay, and asked for political asylum.

Racial Fight Is Taken Into Federal Court

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Five demonstrators, including Mrs. Malcolm Peabody, were brought here today from a St. Augustine jail to testify in behalf of federal court intervention in the civil rights dispute of the nation's oldest city.

Mrs. Peabody, 72, mother of Massachusetts Gov. Endicott Peabody, and the others made the 40-mile trip in a police car driven by Sheriff L. O. Davis.

There were no guards, but Police Chief Virgil Stuart of St. Augustine followed in another car.

3 Attorneys File Pleas
Other prisoners were the Rev. William S. Coffin Jr. and Dr. David Robinson, Yale University chaplains; Dr. Robert Hayling, St. Augustine integration leader; and Anne Ruth Evans, 15, Negro girl.

U.S. Dist. Judge Bryan Simpson was to take testimony on the petition of three attorneys that the nearly 300 demonstrators imprisoned in St. Augustine in the past week be placed under federal jurisdiction.

The judge indicated to the attorneys that he would not take jurisdiction from the St. Augustine courts.

In St. Augustine, leaders of the integration movement said they might issue a nationwide call for more demonstrators to fill the jails.

New Demonstration
By Greek Cypriots

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Several hundred Greek Cypriot secondary school students demonstrated in Nicosia today, shouting for "enosis"—union of Cyprus with Greece.

The students carried placards demanding the return to Cyprus of Gen. George Grivas, founder and leader of the underground Eoka movement, who is now living in virtual exile in Athens.

The students paraded past the Greek Embassy building, then went to the presidential palace two miles outside Nicosia. The president of Cyprus, Archbishop Makarios, is the leader of the Greek Cypriot community.

Stirs Up Public Discussion
Fulbright Surprised by Response
To His Criticism of Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. J. W. Fulbright voiced pleasure today at the response to his foreign policy speech, and predicted the wide election year debate it has touched off will help the Johnson administration.

The Foreign Relations Committee chairman's aim in his March 25 address was to stir up public talk on basic foreign policy issues, and he appeared to have succeeded beyond his expectations.

Stirs Up Comment
The Arkansas Democrat's remarks to a sparsely attended Senate last week so far have evoked:

Cautious comment from President Johnson and a mixed evaluation by Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

Allegations of softness-on-communism from some leading Republicans and some Democrats, plus some support from both sides of the political fence.

Youth, Girl Killed In Kenosha Co. Auto-Train Crash

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A car-train crash in Kenosha County took the lives of two teenagers and a head-on collision in Chippewa County killed a Cornell woman Wednesday night. The deaths raised Wisconsin's 1964 highway toll to 216 compared with 155 on this date a year ago.

Mrs. Kenneth C. Schafer, 32, of route 1, Cornell, was injured fatally about 8:15 p.m. Wednesday when two cars crashed head-on three miles south of Cadott on Highway 27 in Chippewa County. She was riding in a car driven by her husband.

Schafer and the other driver, Ralph S. Turner, 48, Stevens Point, were injured seriously.

William Tooley, 17, and Angela DeLuca, 15, both of Kenosha were killed Wednesday in the collision of their car and a Milwaukee Road train at a crossing about eight miles southwest of Kenosha.

Foreign praise and protests from Moscow to Formosa. A far-flung but mixed editorial reaction in the United States. Bags full of mail still pouring into his office.

At latest count, aides said some 5,000 letters, telegrams and postcards had arrived from around the nation and abroad, and the ratio so far favors Fulbright's stand 4 or 5 to 1.

Fulbright lit the fuse by urging abandonment of "old myths" in cold war attitudes in face of the "new realities" of today.

"The master myth of the cold war is that the Communist bloc is a monolith," he said.

In calling for flexibility in dealing with the growing "great variation" among the Reds, Fulbright also advocated an end to the Cuba boycott—a "failure," he called it—and proposed open-mindedness about recognizing Red China some day. He said the public, Congress and executive branch should dare to explore such "unthinkable" things.

In an interview today, Fulbright said "I'm very pleased and somewhat surprised at the volume" of the response triggered by the speech.

"I do not think this is damaging to the administration at all," he added. "I think this is helpful to the administration in the sense that it brings these things out into the open" for public discussion.

GOP Campaign Issue
He said he had made the speech because in the New Hampshire Republican presidential primary, Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller had named foreign policy as a 1964 campaign issue. The GOP candidates had only issued "a collection of generalities," he said.

Fulbright said he has not heard from Johnson since the speech nor did he consult the administration beforehand.

FBI Agent Sues For $750,000

NEW YORK (AP)—An FBI agent is suing for $750,000 damages for injuries suffered in a beating by members of a Brooklyn family that authorities say has connections with Cosa Nostra.

The agent, John P. Foley, 42, filed the suit Wednesday in U.S. District Court.

He was in a hospital for six weeks with a fractured skull and other injuries. His suit says some of the injuries are permanent.

Foley was beaten, kicked and clubbed April 3, 1963, outside Immaculate Heart of Mary Roman Catholic church in Brooklyn while photographing persons attending funeral services for Carmelo Lombardo.

The suit named as defendants four Lombardos and two relatives arrested in connection with the attack.

Gen. MacArthur
Growing Weaker

Heart and Kidney Functions Waning, Hospital Report Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur has suffered a "further waning" of his heart and kidney function, Walter Reed Army Hospital announced today.

A bulletin at 10:16 a.m. said continuing deterioration of the five-star general's kidney function has necessitated institution of a semi-artificial means of stimulating kidney function. The technique involves making two incisions in MacArthur's abdomen and inserting two tubes.

The purpose is to attempt to wash out from the general's blood poisonous materials which cannot be efficiently filtered out by his own faltering kidney system.

Unfavorable Report
The procedure is technically known as "peritoneal dialysis." It involves continuous running of liquid chemicals, somewhat similar to those used by the kidneys, through one of the tubes into a cavity between two blood-filled membranes within the abdomen which are known as the "peritoneum."

The resulting products are pumped out through the other tube.

The new downturn followed a terse and gloomy report from the doctors Wednesday that the outlook was not good.

That was the last report Wednesday when doctors had noted a slight improvement in the 84-year-old general's lowered blood pressure and control of the troublesome and sporadic internal bleeding.

Asked flatly if the general would recover, Dr. Henry S. Murphy, a brigadier general and hospital commandant answered: "We hope so."

The tube which had been inserted through MacArthur's esophagus and into his stomach remained in place. But the pressure of a small balloon against broken veins—designed to retard bleeding in the esophagus—was all but removed.

"He is markedly composed—has asked for his wife many times and she has visited him frequently," Murphy said.

Most critical still were signs early Wednesday that MacArthur's heart was losing efficiency and his kidney function was worsening. Even the slight improvement in blood pressure during the day was not enough to add optimism to the late report.

2 Missing After Accident Aboard
Carrier Randolph

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—A flight deck elevator on the carrier Randolph broke loose and fell into the ocean Wednesday night, carrying five men and an airplane with it, the Navy reported today.

Three of the men were rescued by the destroyer Holder, which was performing plane guard duty for the Randolph. The two other men were listed as missing. The accident occurred 270 miles southeast of Cape Henry, Va.

Immediately after the elevator broke loose there was an explosion, followed by fire that engulfed the starboard side of the ship, a Navy spokesman said.

He said the flames were put out in 10 minutes. The Randolph did not give the cause of the explosion or the extent of damage to the ship, the spokesman added.

The names of the missing men, as well as those of the rescued men, were withheld temporarily.

Accident Aboard
Carrier Randolph

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—A flight deck elevator on the carrier Randolph broke loose and fell into the ocean Wednesday night, carrying five men and an airplane with it, the Navy reported today.

Three of the men were rescued by the destroyer Holder, which was performing plane guard duty for the Randolph. The two other men were listed as missing. The accident occurred 270 miles southeast of Cape Henry, Va.

Immediately after the elevator broke loose there was an explosion, followed by fire that engulfed the starboard side of the ship, a Navy spokesman said.

He said the flames were put out in 10 minutes. The Randolph did not give the cause of the explosion or the extent of damage to the ship, the spokesman added.

The names of the missing men, as well as those of the rescued men, were withheld temporarily.

Heart and Kidney Functions Waning, Hospital Report Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur has suffered a "further waning" of his heart and kidney function, Walter Reed Army Hospital announced today.

A bulletin at 10:16 a.m. said continuing deterioration of the five-star general's kidney function has necessitated institution of a semi-artificial means of stimulating kidney function. The technique involves making two incisions in MacArthur's abdomen and inserting two tubes.

Firms Showing Interest in Relocating

Ask Installation Of Water Main in Industrial Park

At least two industrial firms have shown more than casual interest in building new plants in Appleton's industrial park, it was learned today.

Recent property transactions in the city-owned park were the tip-off that at least one local industry plans to relocate and has preliminary plans for building a new plant there.

Since then, however, the city has been approached by other firms wishing to remain anonymous until a final decision has been made to build.

Water Feeder Line
That some industries are giving serious consideration to purchasing land from the city for new plants was indicated in a technically worded item which passed the common council Wednesday night. It concerned a water feeder line for the industrial park.

The monthly report of the Appleton Water Commission to the council added to speculation that something is brewing concerning future development of the municipally-owned property.

The water commission is requesting authority from the Wisconsin Public Service Commission to install a new 12-inch feeder main to the industrial park area "to render water service to several industries planning to locate in the area."

The companies were not identified in the water commission's report.

Other Action
Several matters were acted on by the council Wednesday night, including:

Scheduling of a public hearing to place the extension of W. College Avenue on the city's official map, the route to be 150 feet wide from U.S. 41 to Mayflower Drive.

Distribution of copies of an extensive refuse collection report to all aldermen, accompanied by announcement of the street sanitation committee will make recommendations for a bi-weekly rubbish collection.

Authorization to advertise for bids to repair the Lawe Street bridge.

Bay West Paper Faces U. S. Charge Of Fixing Prices

WASHINGTON (AP)—A major manufacturer of paper towels was charged by the government today with fixing prices in violation of anti-trust laws.

A civil anti-trust suit filed in U.S. District Court, Milwaukee, named the Bay West Paper Co. of Green Bay, Wis., wholly owned by the Mosinee Paper Mills Co. of Mosinee, Wis., as defendant.

The complaint said Bay West has improperly prescribed retail prices to be charged by its distributors and improperly required them to sell only in certain allocated territories.

The Justice Department said this has resulted in unreasonably restrained competition and has forced retail customers to pay arbitrary prices. The court was asked to forbid the alleged price fixing and territorial allocation arrangements.

Bay West was described as the fifth largest manufacturer of paper towels for industrial use, with annual sales exceeding $4.6 million.

Practicing

Despite Snow

Indians Depending On Jack Kapitzke's Pitching This Year

WEYAUWEGA — Despite snow-covered ground, the Weyauwega High School Indians have started spring baseball practice.

Finishing the season last year in third place in the Central Wisconsin Conference with a 6-2 record, the Indians will be depending on Jack Kapitzke's pitching arm to possibly better that record this year.

During the 1963 season, Kapitzke played understudy to Jack Wholt on the mound and drew only two starting assignments. He won both of those contests and went on to play BABA ball for the remainder of the summer where he showed tremendous progress in his pitching ability.

Other returning lettermen this year are Rick Birkholz, who will be at short and also pitch, Jim Baehman a junior at third base, Jim Hildebrand another junior at first and in the outfield, Greg Hildebrand, one of three sophomore lettermen, at second, Gaylon Barz, a sophomore utility man who can play either third, the outfield or catch.

Guy Lankford the other sophomore letterman will see most of his action in the outfield and possibly could draw some pitching assignments. The other lettermen are Eugene Montgomery, who will be used either as a catcher or in the outfield and Ron Wangeline who will also see action at the same positions.

There will be 18 other members of the squad bidding for one of the starting assignments. They are Phil Lewis, Jim Baehman, Nick Wohlt, Tom Dean, Lee Hansen, Dave Borchardt, Jim Gart, Pete Lontvit, Steve Timm, Bob Wall, Gordy Cronit, Cordell Ernst, Dick Gerack, Gene Hehner, Jim Kneisler, Larry Schmies, Dave Tews and Jerry Wohlt.

Coached by Jim Otte, with Ed Hildebrand as assistant coach the Indians will open their season with a non-conference home game with Winneconne April 16. They will swing into conference play April 21 in another home game with Wittenberg. The remainder of the schedule is: April 28, Waupaca (A); May 1, Manawa (H); May 5, Bonduel (A); May 8, Winneconne (A), another non-conference game; May 12, Amherst (H); May 15, Iola - Scandinavia (A), and May 22, Wautoma (A).

BY JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — It was like putting a firecracker under President Johnson's chair.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, Johnson's successor as Democratic majority leader of the Senate, calmly told reporters:

The Senate, because of the Southern Democrats' filibustering opposition, may not be able to finish the civil rights bill until next fall.

The fight on the civil rights bill began a couple of weeks ago, droned along, and then got seriously started this week.

Fall Finish
No finish till fall would carry the struggle through the summer with just time out for the Democratic and Republican presidential conventions.

Mansfield, unlike Johnson, is a relaxed and easy-going man whose attitude on filibusters, including this one, seems to be: "Oh, let the boys talk."

But Johnson has a lot of programs hanging in Congress, from foreign aid to war on poverty.

Wants Election
Some of them could get jammed, hashed and massacred if a long civil rights fight delayed action on them till the last minute.

Yet, Johnson almost certainly will want the Democratic presidential nomination so he can try to get elected to the White House on his own.

But he will need some positive accomplishments to campaign on, like a lot of good legislation passed.

Without that, he will be just a man who made big promises but couldn't produce.

He won't be the only sufferer if Congress is still in session next fall. All 435 House seats are at stake.

So the members of Congress will need time next fall to campaign for re-election.

One way to speed up action on civil rights, if that's possible, is to keep the Senate in round-the-clock session for weeks until the filibusters wear themselves out.

Pre-Civil Rights
But in the process the pro-civil rights senators, and even the indifferent ones, will wind up worn out, too, and that could be dangerous for some in the upper-age bracket.

Mansfield wants no part of such a survival contest. He wants everything, as usual, done in a kind of gentlemanly way.

Johnson hasn't expressed himself on Mansfield's latest statement but it can be guessed how he feels for a couple of reasons:

1 He was a hard-driver himself. He didn't let the fight go on for endless months when he was steering two civil rights bills through the Senate in 1957 and 1958, the only two to get through in this century.

2. Now he has an even bigger stake in the outcome than when he was majority leader. The civil rights program is his administration's program. He endorsed it, said he wants it, and needs it to point to.

South Strategy
Right here is where the Southern strategy may be most effective in putting pressure on Johnson to make compromises on the civil rights bill, since he has more than civil rights to worry about.

This, of course, was the Southern strategy from the beginning but Mansfield's statement should give their chances a boost.

There's another side to this: The longer they tie up Johnson's other programs, the more excuse they give him to compromise on civil rights.

But if he does compromise, on any kind of excuse, he will be on the spot anyway since Negroes and white supporters of civil rights will be watching to see who yields an inch.

Alaskan Airlift Pilot Finds Note Of Appreciation

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—The weary pilot found the note half-hidden in his plane after airlifting 39 persons here from Kodiak. It was written on a paper napkin.

"This is for nice kind persons at the Navy base. We thank you so much for your big help to native people."

"You clothed us when we didn't have clothes, you feed (sic) us when we were hungry, you gave water to drink and there is more nice things you Navy people help us with."

"It's so nice there is a Navy base or any base to help us, so this bye-bye from all Kaguyak people"

Parts of the letter were released Wednesday by Lt. Cmdr R. L. Rundle of the Alameda Naval Air Station, Calif., who was the pilot. He said it had been left by a 9-year-old girl whose name he didn't know. He plans to frame it.

Mayor Candidates Discuss Issues

The Post-Crescent asked the two candidates for mayor in Appleton this question: "If elected mayor, what would you propose for the good of the city of Appleton the next two years?"

Their replies were printed in last Sunday's edition, but because through an error in make-up it was difficult for the reader to distinguish when one statement ended and the other began, the Post-Crescent is reprinting their answers today.—Editor.

The most urgent needs that I can see for the city in the next few years are as follows:

• One of the most urgent

needs of the city of Appleton at the present time is improving of the water supply for the city.

• The implementation of the Regional Planning Commission recommendations relating to land use, subdivision control ordinances, zoning ordinances, the establishing of right of ways for expressways and thoroughfares or putting them on the official maps so as a control of all land as it now exists. Also the encouraging of the neighboring municipalities to establish an official map and also put on their official map the expressways and thoroughfares as recommended by the Regional Planning Commission.

• A continuation of the separation of storm drainage water from the sanitary sewers to eliminate the flooding of basements.

College Avenue

• The planning and reconstruction or rebuilding of College Avenue from east to west so as to provide the downtown Appleton with a new central business area or a new core area.

• The completion of the building of the underground facilities under College Avenue prior to the reconstruction or rebuilding so as to eliminate any costly repairs or cuts in the street that might have to be made after College Avenue has been rebuilt.

• The completion or the extension of W. Washington Street and W. Franklin Street to alleviate the traffic congestion and to give the downtown area and the City of Appleton a better east, west, and northwest traffic flow.

• The relocation and the programming of the intersection of E. Wisconsin Avenue and N. Meade Street. Thereby correcting a congested traffic area and freeing approximately one acre of land so that the adjoining industry can and will expand and employ more people.

Industrial Growth

• To give further aid and assistance to local industry to help it grow and expand so that it can employ more people, thereby giving us a better tax base.

• The continued promotion of the Appleton City Industrial Park by getting new industries or encouraging present in-

Resalination Plants Envisioned on U. S. Coasts in Next Decade

WASHINGTON (AP) — By 1975, large combined nuclear power-desalination plants could be pumping out low-cost water along the U.S. coasts, a government task force said Wednesday.

Oceanographer Roger Revelle told a news conference that waste heat from the plants could be used to make unpleasantly cold ocean water comfortable for swimming.

Revelle was chairman of the task group, established by the president's Office of Science and Technology to evaluate proposals from the Oak Ridge (Tenn.) National Laboratory that very large nuclear-electric power plants might be combined with water desalting plants to convert fresh water from sea water at relatively low cost.

Revelle said the technology now exists to produce fresh water from sea water in such huge plants at an estimated cost of 20 to 25 cents per 1,000 gallons. The cost of sea water conversion now is $1 to $1.50 per thousand gallons.

tries of the City of Appleton to expand into the Appleton Industrial Park, thereby alleviating some of the congestion in our now industrial areas.

• The future extension of W. College Avenue from U.S. Highway 41 to the new Outagamie County Airport to give access to the City of Appleton for commercial travelers and for industrial users.

• The continuation of providing adequate schools for education for your children, my children, and our grandchildren.

• Continuation of providing adequate recreation facilities such as parks and playgrounds for all the citizens of Appleton regardless of age.

• A continuing review and study of our parking problem and facilities so as to keep it cored as much as possible and not let it lag behind.

Jones Park

• A study or review along with the development of the Jones Park area to which the city now has clear title.

• Supporting the recommendations that have been made for establishing a County Health Department so as to have a county wide health program instead of stopping at political boundaries. I believe we had a very good demonstration of what a county wide program can do on the Sabi Sunday which was held just a short time ago and which will be held again on April 19.

• The reconstruction of N. Badger Avenue from W. Wisconsin Avenue to Memorial Drive and the S. Memorial Drive to W. Lawrence Street to the Memorial Drive Bridge.

If you and I, the citizens of Appleton, as public officials in the City of Appleton think that we can turn our back on any of the above needs that have been mentioned and if by ignoring them they will go away, my advice is that we should not try to do this.

I, therefore, would recommend that the governing body of the first draft of the capital improvement program along with the projected operating expenses for operating budgets along with the predicted tax rates for the years of 1964 to 1970 and that they adopt or accept this as a guide as soon as possible so that all the above projects can be completed and can be financed with a low tax rate as the City of Appleton has been blessed with in the past.

George Buckley

In keeping my reply to approximately 500 words, I cannot go into my entire platform, but will hold that, instead, for the candidates meeting to be held on April 2 at Madison Junior High School.

• I would like to go into my proposal to reduce city expenditures and I firmly believe that this can be done by intelligent, planned spending. There is no excuse for the fact that in just six short years Appleton should be faced with a climbing tax rate, a huge capital debt and no plan for economy in the future. Why are we now floundering in the quicksand of ever-increasing indebtedness?

• One of the prime reasons is the undertaking of too many capital improvements in one tax year. I quote from the Appleton Post-Crescent of Feb. 20, 1964: "Among projects mentioned for bonding are new municipal garage, fire station, Einstein Junior High, straightening of Meade Street, the Washington-Franklin Street extension and a new high school." All this in just one year. Very obviously, some of these projects are a must, but why should they all be undertaken at once?

Volunteers

• I would like to see a financial advisory committee created with committee members serving on a volunteer basis. I feel that this committee should have as a member our director of finance, an office created, incidentally, subsequent to my resolution of May 16, 1962, calling for the appointment of same. Other members could be one of the past chairmen of our finance committee, two or three men with experience in banking and investments, a representative from each of the Appleton investment firms and the mayor.

• This committee could examine closely a list of future proposed capital improvements and determine what effect their undertaking would have on our presently high tax rate. If the undertaking of all of the list would raise the tax rate, then a recommendation to the city council would be made that something would have to be put over for the following year.

• I agree that we will definitely have capital improvement proposals in the future and I agree that we must keep Appleton on the move, but let's keep our residents and industry on the move out of town to avoid the high tax rate.

• Another reason for the indebtedness is that the tax rate does not make Appleton attractive to new industry nor does it encourage the expansion and retention of our present industry.

• While I am naturally interested in encouraging new industry to locate in Appleton, I am more concerned with the promotion of our present industry, aiding with their zoning problems, and through proper planning — both local and regional — to look to our own industry's future welfare.

Reduce Tax

• But, particularly, I am interested in economy in government that could reduce the tax rate. If that can be accomplished, then our present industry could expand without fear of adding too much to their tax bill, and new industry could be attracted to Appleton.

• The city of La Crosse, comparable in size to Appleton, has had a reduction in its tax rate for three successive years! It can happen here, too.
